And not though the seven walled seas were thrice as deep Would I change my place at his side for a softer sleep.

Shelter and warmth and food and a place of rest, Haven of dreams and a mother's holy breast, Bounty and beauty and breath I would be to my man!
Such is the song of the wife who is strong in the clan.

DEAR EVERYWOMAN'S,—

My only daughter, against my wishes, is determined to attend Toronto University.
I do not believe in a University career for a woman, and have pointed out to her that if she desires to continue her studies (she has matriculated) a few terms at a domestic science school will be the most useful. University women are, as a rule, conceited and impractical. I would rather a girl were a good housekeeper than a good Greek scholar any time, and am sure you will agree with me. But she is bent on having her own way. Am I not within my rights in objecting to a course of which I cannot approve and which means four of the best years of her life? During my thirty years in the ministry I have seen enough of life to know its real successes from the make-believe kind, and am thus qualified to advise a wayward—though lovable—young girl.—A. H. B.

DEAR DADDY,—

Forgive the familiarity, but this is what you are—just a dear, loving and jealous daddy, with an "only" daughter who is evidently a chip of the old block, "bent on having her own way." You are certainly within your rights in objecting, and she is within hers in refusing to be talked out of her life purpose. To get the view point of youth we must look at things with youth's clear eyes. As for the conceit and the lack of practical accomplishment in University women, we do not agree with you at all. Wait, don't get cross. I want you to listen to a few things University girls are doing to help in war-work.

Miss Marjory King, is assistant dietician at Queen's Military Hospital. Miss Ruth Ross is at Whitby. Dr. Ruby Cole, M.B., 1916, is doing fine work for so recent a graduate. She is in charge of the military patients in the Tuberculosis Sanitarium at Hamilton. Dr. Evelyn Windsor, who recently married a soldier brother of Stephen Leacock, of McGill, is one of the few women to obtain a commission with the British Army. She is a Lieutenant in the R. A. M. C., and is at present stationed in London. Miss Ruddy, after two arduous years in the field as a nurse, is home recuperating. E. B. Ridley, of the Grandville Canadian Specialists' Hospital, has been decorated by King George.

Miss Marion Leach is another who has done something worth while; taking up V.A.D. work after completing a brilliant college course last year. While driving a motor truck in old London, her lover came over from France, and the two were married in historic St. George's Church, Hanover Square. She is now driving an ambulance in Paris.

Miss Ianthe Constantinides and Miss Jean Harferlane, Trinity graduates, have "been in it from the first." Another, Mrs.
Douglass Spohn, is engaged in Red Cross work in England. Felicia Cook, B.A., 1914, is a nurse in Bermondsey Hospital.
Miss Smilie, B.A., has her nurse's degree, and is doing valiant work on a hospital ship in the Mediterranean. Muriel Sparks, B.A., now the wife of Captain Harold Ball is assistant quartermaster at Maidenhead Hospital, England.

Many more of our graduates are overseas; besides there is a small army of them busy in Canada. Miss Edith Creighton, B.A., instructs in military massage at Hart House. Under her are Miss Hanna, who last winter organized a St. John's Ambulance course of university women, Miss Smith, B.A., and Miss Steele, a 1916 graduate.

Miss Klinch and Miss Trapp are at the Vancouver Military Hospital, while other graduates, Miss Elsie Keith, and Miss Stupart, are V.A.D.'s. Miss Kennedy, Miss Parks, Miss Lobb, Miss Holt, Miss Ewan (1917) are working at munitions.
The undergraduates are knitting like nice old ladies and "getting up" things to raise money for patriotic work.

We could tell you a lot more, but feel sure you do not need it. Why, we expect our graduates to harvest most of the fruit up in your district this summer and autumn. Better be careful.

Sincerely yours,

ANNE PAGE.

The Burden of Anxiety falls on the Women

ALMOST everybody is living under a tense nervous strain during these trying times, but the burden rests particularly heavy on the women in the home. Whatever their employment about the house, the mind has much time to dwell on the dreadful things that might happen.

There is nothing so wearing on the nerves as worry and anxiety. Nerve force is consumed at an enormous rate, and as the nerve cells become starved and depleted you find yourself unable to rest or sleep. You soon get so you can only see the dark side, and become down-hearted and discouraged.

Headaches, neuralgic pains, indigestion and failure of the vital organs to properly perform their functions are among the symptoms which tell of exhausted nerves and low vitality.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help you if you will only give it a chance.
We know this from long experience with this great food cure. We have proven it by evidence published in this paper from time to time. It only remains for you to put it to the test.

You may wonder why people are so enthusiastic in recommending this treatment for the nerves. But you will understand after you have experienced the benefits that are to be obtained by its use.

You will find yourself resting and sleeping better, appetite and digestion will improve and you will know again the joy of good health.
