

closely bound up with international economic conditions.
Canada and Brazil are close economic partners.

6. Mexico

President Lopez Portillo was the first promoter of a Summit meeting on North-South issues. Mexico is greatly interested in the problems of North-South economic exchanges and because of its geographical position it is one of Canada's important discussion partners on the international scene.