

5.- Permission to take up employment will be deemed to be terminated without prior notification upon the termination of the assignment of the employee in Canada or in Chile, as the case may be. Employment taken up in accordance with the terms of this Agreement will not entitle dependents to continue to reside in Canada or in Chile; nor will it entitle the said dependents to remain in such employment or to enter into other employment in Canada or in Chile after permission has been terminated.

6.- A dependent who obtains employment under this agreement, will not enjoy immunity from civil or administrative jurisdiction with respect to all acts or contracts related directly to this employment.

7.- In the event that a dependent who has immunity from criminal jurisdiction in accordance with the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations is accused of a criminal offence committed in relation to his or her employment, the sending State will give serious consideration to any written request for a waiver of immunity that may be submitted by the receiving State.
