

ARTICLE 11

1. The capacity to be provided by the designated airlines of the Contracting Parties on the agreed services shall be closely related to the estimated requirements of air traffic between Canada and the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic. The frequency and scheduling of services to be operated by each airline and the types of aircraft to be used shall be agreed between the airlines on the basis of the principle of fair and equal opportunity, and shall be subject to the approval of the aeronautical authorities of both Contracting Parties.

2. The aeronautical authorities of both Contracting Parties shall exchange, at the request of either Contracting Party, such statements of statistics as may be reasonably required for the purpose of reviewing the capacity provided on the agreed services.

ARTICLE 12

1. Tariffs for transportation on the agreed services will be established by agreement between the designated airlines at a reasonable level, due regard being given to international practice.

2. Such agreed tariffs for transportation as well as amendments to them shall be filed by the designated airlines with the aeronautical authorities of the Contracting Parties at least forty-five (45) days before the proposed date of introduction. The aeronautical authorities may agree to a shorter notice. No tariff shall become effective unless approved by the aeronautical authorities.

3. If the aeronautical authorities of one Contracting Party are dissatisfied with an existing tariff established by the designated airline of the other Contracting Party, they shall so notify the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party and the aeronautical authorities of the Contracting Parties shall endeavour to reach agreement on the appropriate tariff, within a period of sixty (60) days from the date of notification.

4. Whenever in any case the aeronautical authorities of the two Contracting Parties cannot agree upon a tariff the matter shall be settled in accordance with Article 16.

ARTICLE 13

Each Contracting Party shall, on the basis of reciprocity, grant to the designated airline of the other Contracting Party the right to station as representatives in its territory citizens of the other country required for the operation of the agreed services. Such representation established in the two countries by agreement between the designated airlines, and subject to the approval of the aeronautical authorities of the Contracting Parties, shall be comparable with respect to size and number of locations.

ARTICLE 14

Either Contracting Party may at any time request consultations with the appropriate authorities of the other Contracting Party on questions concerning the interpretation, application or modification of this Agreement. Such consultations shall begin within a period of sixty (60) days from the date the other Contracting Party receives the request, unless otherwise agreed by the Contracting Parties.
