

which the International Atomic Energy Agency is no longer administering such safeguards, safeguards based on the procedures provided for in the Agency's Safeguards System, with respect to the items included in the list referred to above, for the exclusive purpose of verifying that there is compliance with paragraph 1 of this Article. The two Parties shall consult and assist each other in the application of such safeguards.

ARTICLE IV

The Parties agree to take such measures as are necessary, commensurate with the assessed threat prevailing from time to time, to ensure the physical protection of nuclear material referred to in Annex A to the present Agreement which is within their respective jurisdictions, and agree to apply measures of physical protection which satisfy the requirements of the recommendations of the International Atomic Energy Agency concerning the physical protection of nuclear material.

ARTICLE V

1. The appropriate governmental authorities of both Parties shall consult annually, or at any other time at the request of either Party, to ensure the effective fulfilment of the obligations of the present Agreement. The Parties may jointly invite the International Atomic Energy Agency to participate in such consultations.
2. The appropriate governmental authorities of both Parties shall also establish an administrative arrangement to ensure the effective fulfilment of the obligations of the present Agreement. An administrative arrangement established pursuant to this paragraph may be changed with the agreement of the appropriate governmental authorities of both Parties.
3. The cost of reports and records which either Party is required to provide pursuant to the administrative arrangement referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be borne by the appropriate governmental authority which is required to provide that report or record.

ARTICLE VI

The present Agreement may be amended with the agreement of both Parties.

ARTICLE VII

Any dispute arising out of the interpretation or application of the present Agreement which is not settled by negotiation or as may otherwise be agreed by the Parties concerned shall, on the request of either Party, be submitted to an arbitral tribunal which shall be composed of three arbitrators. Each Party shall designate one arbitrator and the two arbitrators so designated shall elect a third, who shall be the Chairman. If within thirty (30) days of the request for arbitration either Party has not designated an arbitrator, either Party to the dispute may request the President of the International Court of Justice to
