

page 12

What is crucial, therefore, in the view of my delegation, is that we persevere with the fullest possible implementation of the recommendations of the Ad Hoc Committee of 14. By so doing, we will ensure that the resources which we place at the disposal of the United Nations are more effectively utilized and we will in the process encourage member states to take a more positive attitude towards United Nations activities in the future.