

CHAPTER VIIIExecution of Requests*ARTICLE 13

1. If the requested Administration is the appropriate authority and does not have the information requested, it shall, in accordance with its national legislation, initiate inquiries to obtain that information.
2. If the requested Administration is not the appropriate authority under the circumstances, it shall, in accordance with its national legislation, either:
 - (a) promptly transmit the request to the appropriate authority; or
 - (b) indicate which relevant authorities are concerned.

ARTICLE 14

For the purpose of investigating a Customs offence, officials specially designated by the requesting Administration may, on written request, with the authorization of the requested Administration and subject to conditions the latter may impose:

- (a) be present during an inquiry conducted by the requested Administration in the territory of the requested Contracting Party that is relevant to the requesting Administration;
- (b) examine in the offices of the requested Administration documents and any other information in respect of that Customs offence, and be supplied with copies thereof.
