

And debate arising thereon;

Mr. Hamilton, seconded by Mr. Dinsdale, moved in amendment thereto,—That all the words after “That” be deleted and the following substituted therefor:

“this House is of the opinion that the government should state immediately its policy on national resources and clearly set out its intentions and objectives generally; and particularly with respect to:

- (a) a national energy policy, including natural gas, oil, electrical transmission grid and uranium;
- (b) a national water policy;
- (c) forestry, agriculture and fisheries policy;
- (d) human resources;

and the extent to which pollution is endangering any or all of these resources.

And debate arising thereon;

Mr. Douglas, seconded by Mr. Lewis, moved in amendment to the said proposed amendment,—That the amendment be amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“and the need to take immediate steps to cope with air and water pollution, including appropriate national standards and any necessary amendments to the Criminal Code of Canada.”

And debate arising thereon;

(Proceedings on Adjournment Motion)

At ten o'clock p.m., the question “That this House do now adjourn” was deemed to have been proposed pursuant to provisional Standing Order 39-A; After debate the said question was deemed to have been adopted.
