REAL PERRAS

The house resumed, from Friday, May 25, consideration of the motion of Mr. Henderson for the second reading of Bill No. 347, for the relief of Real Perras.

Mr. Speaker: The hon. member for Regina City (Mr. Ellis) adjourned the debate. By unanimous consent would it be agreeable to allow this to stand?

Some hon. Members: Stand.

DIVORCE BILLS

Mr. Speaker: There are several divorce bills coming up for second reading. Is it the wish of hon. members that they be proceeded with one by one or as one motion?

Some hon. Members: One motion.

Mr. Nicholson: Mr. Speaker, I have quite a large bundle of evidence here but the evidence involved in order No. 61, Bill No. 366, is missing. I wonder whether order No. 61 might be allowed to stand.

Mr. Speaker: Is it agreed that order No. 61, Bill No. 366, shall stand?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.
