

MOORISH CHRONICLE

CHRONICLE OF FERNAN GONZALEZ

INTRODUCTION	545
I. Installation of Fernan Gonzalez as Count of Castile—His first Campaign against the Moors—Victory of San Quirce—How the Count disposed of the Spoils.....	546
II. Of the sally from Burgos and surprise of the Castle of Lara—Capitulation of the Town—Visit to Alfonso the Great, King of Leon.....	550
III. Expedition against the Fortress of Mugnon—Desperate defense of the Moors—Enterprise against Castro Xeriz.....	553
IV. How the Count of Castile and the King of Leon make a Triumphant Foray into the Moorish Country—Capture of Salamanca—Of the Challenge brought by the Herald and of the Count's defiance.....	555
V. A night Assault upon the Castle of Carazo—The Moorish Maiden who betrayed the Garrison.....	556
VI. Death of Alfonso, King of Leon—The Moors determined to strike a fresh Blow at the Count, who summons all Castile to his Standard—Of his Hunt in the Forest while waiting for the Enemy, and of the Hermit that he met with.....	559
VII. The Battle of the Ford of Caseajares.....	562
VIII. Of the Message sent by the Count to Sancho II., King of Navarre, and the Reply—Their Encounter in Battle.....	564
IX. How the Count of Toulouse makes a Campaign against Castile, and how he returns in his Coffin.....	567
X. How the Count went to receive the Hand of a Princess, and was thrown into a Dungeon—Of the Stranger that Visited him in his Chains, and of the Appeal that he made to the Princess for his Deliverance.....	570
XI. Of the Meditations of the Princess, and their Result—Her Flight from the Prison with the Count, and Perils of the Escape—The Nuptials.....	572
XII. King Garcia confined in Burgos by the Count—The Princess intercedes for his Release.....	576
XIII. Of the Expedition against the ancient City of Sylo—The unwitting Trespass of the Count into a Convent, and his Compunction thereupon.....	577
XIV. Of the Moorish Host that came up from Cordova, and how the Count repaired to the Hermitage of San Pedro, and prayed for Success against them, and received assurance of Victory in a Vision—Battle of Hazlnas... 579	579
XV. The Count imprisoned by the King of Leon—The Countess conceals his Escape—Leon and Castile united by the Marriage of the Prince Ordoño with Urraca, the Daughter of the Count by his first Wife.....	583
XVI. Moorish Incursion into Castile—Battle of San Estevan—Of Pascual Vivas and the Miracle that befell him—Death of Ordoño III.....	586
XVII. King Sancho the Fat—Of the Homage he Exacted from Count Fernan Gonzalez, and of the Strange Bargain that he made with him for the Purchase of his Horse and Falcon.....	591
XVIII. Further of the Horse and Falcon.....	594
XIX. The Last Campaign of Count Fernan—His Death.....	596