

I N D E X.

P.

- Pagoda*. See Maimatschin.
Pankoff (Demetri), his voyage, 61—63.
Pallas, receives from Brazin a narrative of his adventure and escape, p. 88. Account of Kiachta and Maimatschin, extracted from his journal, p. 229. His publication concerning the Mongol tribes, 230. List of plants found by Steller upon the coast discovered by Beering in 1741, communicated by Mr. Pallas—quotation from a treatise of his, relative to the plants of the new-discovered islands, 279. Extracts made by him relative to Delhneff's voyage, p. 314—316.
Pauloffsky, his expedition, in which, after several successful skirmishes with the Tschutski, he is surprised and killed by them, 296.
Peacock. See Feathers.
Pekin. Russian scholars allowed to settle there, to learn the Chinese tongue, 209. See Caravans.
Penshinsk, 5.
Peter I. first projected making discoveries in the seas between Kamchatka and America, 20.
Petersburg, length of the different routs between that city and Pekin, 248.
Piasida, a river of Siberia, 309.
Plenifner (a Courlander), sent on discoveries to the N. E. of Siberia, 294. See Daurkin.
Poloskoff (Matthew), sent by Otcheredin to Unalashka, 159. Spends the autumn at Akun, and after twice repulsing the savages, returns to Otcheredin, 159—161.

- Popoff* (Ioan), a vessel fitted out by him arrives at Unalashka, 158. See Otcheredin.
Prontshitsheff (Lieutenant), his unsuccessful attempt to pass from the Lena towards the Yenisèi, 306—309.
Protassoff, with his crew, destroyed by the savages, 133. 157. See Medvedeff.
Pusbkareff (Gabriel), his voyage, 64—69. Winters upon Alaklu, 65. He, with Golodoff and twenty others, attempting to violate some girls, on the island Unyumga, are set upon by the natives, and at last obliged to retreat, 65, 66. He and his crew tried for their inhuman behaviour to the islanders during their voyage, 67.

R.

- Rheum*. See Rhubarb.
Rhubarb, that from Russia generally called Turkey rhubarb, and why, 332. Description of, ibid. Indian rhubarb inferior to the Tartarian or Turkey, 333. A milk-white sort described, 334. Different species, 335—341. Planted in Siberia by M. Zuchert, a German apothecary, 338. Exportation of, 342. Superiority of the Tartarian over the Indian rhubarb, accounted for, 342.
Ricksa. See Ibiya.
Roaring Mountain. See Unalashka.
Robertson (Dr.) See Krenitzin and Levasheff.
Round Island. See Krugloi.
Russia (present Empress of), a great promoter of new discoveries,
 Z z