

and fro, not knowing which way to flee. After the slaughter of the first day we carried no rifles with through a herd of cattle in a field." These deer ranged in weight from one hundred to four us, but armed only with a camera walked to and fro through the herd, causing little more alarm than one would by walking hundred pounds. During September and October their flesh is equal to the finest beef.

MUSK-OXEN.

The American Government, at