your ability and develop your memory. There's no soliciting, no nominating, no voting. Just the naming of the proverbs as they appear each day. The contest began on Thursday, Oct. 3rd. If you missed the first pictures you can get them at the office of The World, or by mail, at one cent for the Daily and five cents for the Sunday.

Here Are the Rules of the Contest This list of correct answers will remain under seal until called for by the judges, whose names will be announced in due course, and who will have full control of the examination of the answers and the awarding of the prizes.

The Toronto World Proverb Contest is a test of skill and diligence, designed to encourage thought and re-search on the part of the young and provide a pleasant mental diversion for everyone. Every day, for a period of seventy-five (75) days, there will appear in The Toronto Daily and Sunday World an illustration, cartoon or other representation of a commonly used and well-known English proverb.

The Toronto World will award PRIZES AGGREGAT-ING OVER $5000 IN VALUE to readers of The Daily and Sunday World who send in the correct or nearest correct answers to the entire series of illustrations. The first proverb picture was published in The Daily World, Thursday, October 3rd.

The correct answers, to serve as a basis of awards, are being selected according to their common use by the Contest Manager, and three representatives of The Daily and Sunday World, and will shortly be placed under seal in a Safety Deposit Vault.

4. Only one answer may be written upon a single coupon. Extra coupons must be used for additional answers, and all coupons of the same number must be kept together 'n making up the set making up the set.
5. Different members of a family any one ramily or household, and only one set of answers will be ac-cepted from any individual conrect list of answers with the least number of coupons will be declared the winner. Where two (2) or more contestants submit the same num-ber of correct answers upon the same number of coupons the value of the prize or prizes thus fied for will be equally divided among those tving. tying.

10. In making the awards, the judging committee, whose names will be announced in due course, w?!!

lished as a guide and reference for contestants' use in the contest.

To compete for the prizes, contestants need only to supply the proverbs represented by the filustrations that will appear daily, and send in their answers, at the close of the contest, according to the rules. The person sending in the correct or nearest correct list of answers to the entire series of seventy-five (75) illustrations will be awarded the first prize. The person sending in the second nearest correct list of answers will receive the second prize, etc., etc. Entry may be made at any time before the contest is entirely closed. Rules follow: take into account the similarity and exact wording of the proverb an swers as selected by the Contest Manager and three representatives of The Daily and Sunday World, and as contained in The Toronto World's Book of English Proverbs: spelling, wording, punctuation, and the correct construction of the proverbs are the essentials that will be graded.

The correct answers are also included in The Toronto World's Book of English Proverbs, which is published as a guide and reference for contestants' use in staded.

11. Where a set of answers is securely fastened together the contestant will be permitted to stimp (with rubber stamp) or abbreviate his or her name on the space allotted for same, and omit the full address from the greater majority of the blanks, PROVIDED THAT SUCH FULL NAME AND FULL POSTOFFICE ADDRESS is plainly and distinctly written upon the FIRST SIX and LAST SIX BLANKS of the set.

YOU CAN ENTER THE CONTEST TODAY BY SIMPLY SECURING THE BACK PROVERBS

All of the back Proverb Pictures from October 3rd to date will be sent to any address in Canada upon receipt of 13 cents.

Goliath - Nomination Goes Begging.

WATERLOO, Oct. 9 .- (Special.) -The Liberals of North Waterloo met this afternoon and, after a three-hour session, decided to leave the matter of nominating a candidate in the hands of the executive. Seven party stalwarts were nominated, but none were willing today to accept, altho the majority were outspoken on the Rowell policy to abolish the bar. Rev. J. E. Lynn, one of the nominees, said that what was wanted was a David to go out to meet Goliath. North Waterloo was essentially a Liberal riding and he could not see why it could not be won back. He urged a contest, saying that the policy of the Liberal party was nothing to be ashamed of. Mr. Lynn is spoken of as the most likely to be the choice of the executive.

Others nominated were: Jacob Kaufman, Dr. J. F. Honsberger, W. D. Eu-ler, E. P. Clement, K.C., Mayor Fischer of Waterloo and Leander Bowman. It was pointed out at the meeting that Mr. Rowell strongly urged that a candidate should be put in the field, which remark was greeted with applause.
