In the Court of Appeal for Ontario. Confederation Life v. Kinnear.—Order was made on Friday by Mr. Justice Osler, allowing security tendered by the plaintiffs on appeal to the Succession of th preme Court. Judgment was originally given by Mr. Justice Falconbridge, who heard the evidence of witnesses and tried the case, deciding in favor of the plaintiffs. The judges in appeal reversed that judgment and now the case goes to the Supreme Court. me Court. Judgment was origina

Crawford vs. Broddy. The main interest in this case is that it has been argued four times and two decisions have been given one way and two the other. The latest, by the Supreme Court of Canada, just now received by the Registrar of the now received by the Registrar of the High Court here, reverses the Judgment of the Ontario Court of Appeal, and reinstates that of the Divisional Court, formed of Chancellor Boyd and Mr. Justice Meredith. The question in dispute was under the last will of the late Francis Nixon, and the plaintiffs, Adeline Crawford and Margaret Harkley, are declared to be entitled in fee to Lot 8 in the 14th Concession of Chinguacous, subject to the payment of the value of any lasting improvements made thereon by the defendants.

The judges of the Supreme Court who overruled our Court of Appeal were Sir Henry Strong and Justices Taschereau Sedgwick, King and Gir-ouard. Mr. Thomas Dixon of Walker-ton was solicitor for the plaintiffs and Messrs. Blain and Graham for the de-

The publication contains a copy of the Act, and the board's regulations, based thereon. It also contains plans and specifications for a $1500 abattoir, such as would be suitable for places of from 5000 to 15,000 population.

York vs. Humberstone May be Settled. The long-standing case of York v. ex-Reeve Humberstone looks nearer settlement than it has any time during the two years of its progress. The township charge has been that Mr. Humberstone took possession for services rendered of $1400, for which no bylaw was passed. A settlement now proposed by the council is that the township withdraw its claim, and the defendant his for damages. The mut-

$350,000 TO LOAN At 5 and 5½ consider operations, based on better news. There was some very substantial bull news received this morning. The 475 cars in the Northwest looked like heavy receipts, but they were forgotten after the early selling was over. Cables were ½4 higher and stedy, closing about the same figures as the opening. New York sent early messages, telling of large export demand there. There was good export demand there. There was good export business worked from Boston, New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia, Bad crop reports were received from Onto and Michigan. Late Paris cables quote wheat 45 centimes higher and excited. Everything points to higher prices. The buying has been good all day and market closed strong. Corn and oats have not following despatch to-day from Chicago:
