JUNCTION BILL IN COMMITTEE.

General Notes From North and East Toronto and Richmond Hill.

Toronto Junction, April 6.—The private bill respecting Toronto Junction came before the Private Bill Committee this morning, and subject to certain amendments will be confirmed when it comes up next Thursday. The clause providing for the separation of union school sections 13 and 22 of the Township of York carried, but the boundary lines are not to be varied. The Township of York was a party to building certain schools in the union, at places to benefit township residents. The debentures issued on their account have all been consolidated in the town's indebtedness to its bondholders. The township had a certain portion to pay, which had the union continued, would have run for about 20 years. In dissolution, the township will be indebted to the town's unpaid portion of the original debentures, and Mr. Bruce of Hamilton, on behalf of the town's debentureholders, asked that this indemnity should be paid to them to reduce the town's debt, and not to the Council. This was agreed upon. The bill regarding the Western Stock Market was amended, but that amendment will be referred to a committee to determine the extent of exempting any manufacturing establishment was left until next Thursday. In the meantime, Mr. Pender's bill will have been referred to the committee. It is thought that special provisions will be made to meet Toronto Junction's case. The town, unlike other towns, is prohibited from issuing debentures. It cannot even grant exemption from liability of its factoring concerns, without obtaining the consent of the bondholders. The bondholders are so directly interested in the town's future that a section has been inserted in the bill providing that two representatives of the bondholders, namely H. C. Hammond and J. E. Macdonald, and the Mayor, shall be a committee to decide upon exemptions. The town is asking that sales for taxes, which have been postponed, be confirmed, subject to the right of the owners to redeem. The bill provides that, one year, but Mr. Harcourt could not consent to this without further consideration. The town is anxious to legalize its sales, so that buildings may go up on vacant lands, without any possibility of dispute or claims in the future. On the other hand, if any errors have been made in the sale of lands, it would be manifestly unfair to the owners, if they, in years to come, found out the error, and were deprived of their lands.

North Toronto.

Twenty-four births, five marriages and five deaths have been registered with the York Township Clerk for the month of March. Sermons on behalf of missions are to be preached in Epiphany Methodist Church tomorrow by Rev. Dr. Sullivan. In the morning and in the evening by Rev. Dr. Livingston. York County News.

Beeson, manager of the Lower Hill Creamery, has resigned. He and his wife left for Southampton on Tuesday, and before their departure Mr. Beeson was the recipient of a large number of letters from Union Lodge, A. F. & A. M. C. and K. of C. and the K. of L. Woodbridge Public School will give a concert in the Orange Hall on April 12. Jas. L. Hughes will lecture on "The Smith Children," and local artists will furnish the rest.
