

THREE-YEAR-OLD BOY BURNS TO DEATH SATURDAY

Ralph Allan Watson Is Dead as Result of Oil Stove Explosion.

While enjoying his sleep about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Ralph Allan Watson, the three-year-old son and only child of Mr. H. A. and Mrs. Watson, 28 Hale street, was burned to death as a result of a fire caused by the explosion of a coal oil stove.

Front Door Locked. Running out the rear door the flames reached the front with only a few minutes to elapse before the fire had reached the front door. The door was locked and the fire was not noticed until it was too late.

Firemen Found Remains. Searching the ruins which the fire had left behind, the firemen found the charred remains of the boy under a pile of debris in the corner of the room where a few moments before he had been peacefully sleeping. It is thought that he was sitting up in bed at the time and had gotten out of bed in an effort to make his escape and was over the door before he could get out of the room.

Fire H. A. Watson, the father, is a member of the C. A. G. Details stationed at Carling Heights. Word was quickly sent to him, and he reached the house about 10 o'clock. The fire was quickly extinguished, but the place was destroyed by this time.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday at 2 o'clock at the undertaking parlors of John Ferguson & Sons, Somerset street. The interment will be made in Mount Pleasant cemetery.

FALL FROM GRACE COST USUAL TEN DOLLAR FINE

City attractions prove too strong for one who in the past years has been a frequent visitor of the police court, but who was charged with being drunk this morning for the first time in six months. "He would be all right if he would go out on a farm," said Chief W. T. Williams. "He has been doing much better lately, however."

Probably the house, a rent of $10 and the box did not wish to let the goose that lays the golden egg, for he informed Magistrate Grier that he did not know where he got his bottle of beer that yielded over 25 per cent. He may have been afraid of the intense heat coming on the storehouse, but at any rate his secret was out. The case cost him $10 and costs of ten days in jail.

Yet another drunk was assessed the usual ten dollars and ten days.

WOOLLEN GARMENTS WERE IN EVIDENCE AT BAND CONCERT

Cool Weather Did Not Interfere With Success.

Those pull-over sweaters and various other little huggie-tights were in evidence at the band concert in Victoria Park, the different hues of the wool casting a rainbow effect over the park. The cool weather brought out the sweaters and the little toddlers, who usually sport on the grass while the elders enjoy the various selections, were conspicuous by their absence. This is the first concert given by the I.O.G.E. since the Lord's Day Alliance took exception to the concert being held in Victoria Park, and the bandmen received a fee for their services. However, the I.O.G.E. obtained permission to use the park for the remainder of the season and the Canadian Garrison Band gave its services gratuitously last evening. The following program, all exceptionally fine numbers was rendered: March—Onward, Christian Soldiers.

PRESTCRAFT BASIS IS MINISTERIAL FEAR OF CONGREGATIONS

So Declares Rev. Robert Norwood in Lecture.

APPEALS FOR THE TRUTH

And Believes Preachers Will Some Time Gain Courage To Tell It.

As a lecturer, as a powerful platform personality, Rev. Robert Norwood, former rector of St. John's Memorial Church, is not without fame in his own city. As a noted speaker, without mention of his name, it was announced that he would address the Theological Society in the I. O. F. hall last evening. But the speaker's identity leaked out and the hall was filled with the cream of the city's intelligence, who listened for over two hours to a fervid, impassioned address.

The evening discourse, Supper, was prefaced by a piano solo from Miss Irene Burns and a reading by Mrs. Ed. Westland from Mr. Norwood's poem, "The Song of the Son." In introducing the speaker, Edward, a member of the Theological Society, quoted the remark of a prominent citizen who once declared that in 25 years of man had affected him so profoundly as had Robert Norwood, and he believed that no other man had left so lasting an impression on Western Ontario as Mr. Norwood.

Mr. Norwood, whom he described as the poet who preaches.

Mr. Norwood opened his address with a reference to the significance of his reappearance in London on an August evening, that was touched with autumn beauty and winter's tang, yet held reminiscence of the summer.
