NOTE AND COMMENT

The yachtsmen and the runners are preparing for their races, and they are talking somewhat like those gladiators who have the idea of a gate foremost in mind. The Rochester Yacht Club have the Canada's Cup in their possession, which they must defend or hand over. They have the old Seneca, that held on to the mug two years ago, and which they propose to take up once more off New York. The R.C.Y.C. that propose to challenge, claim rightly that Seneca is ineligible, and there the matter stands, as Rochester refuses to lay the matter before the protest board.

Then Longboat and Dorando are apparently quibbling over the appointment of a referee for next Wednesday's 20-mile indoor marathon. The last named New York reporter are being filled up that way, when, as a matter of fact, Tim Hurst was mutually agreed upon when the match was made.

A well-known Toronto devotee of amateur sport, who saw Dorando defeat Hayes, says that the Italian is a real Indian; (this right after he had received a telegram from Tom Flanagan that he had just made a last-minute last-minute trial (Friday). Dorando is in perfect form and a demon indoors.

They use a dirt track in Madison-square, and this, with the cold weather, will favor Longboat. A party from the Irish-Canadians are going to see the race, including Pat O'Shea, gentleman of leisure, D'Arcy Hilde, secretary-treasurer, and Claude Pearce, who holds a record for blizzard running. The last named expects to be a cheer for Longboat. "I saw the Smallwood race, he says, pointing to the finish line, the Irishman, and then at Lillie's a week later. Tim Hurst was at the race, when the change in him, is the way Pearce puts it, lucky thinking of some race horses.

There is an agitation on in the east for the finish of the Federation, or rather, the finish of the differences with the C. A. U. The C. A. U. Journal has been so far as to ask for a composite unfavorable, that would satisfy both associations. The paper is in a real earnest about it, too, forgetting that there can be only one amateur definition.

The baseball men are well organized at the moment. They have three leagues, the officers, the men, and last night saw the latest addition, the SERGEANTS' Indoor Baseball League.

The SERGEANTS' Indoor Baseball League was organized last night. Officers: Hon. president—Lieut. Col. Good (hon.), President—Sergeant-Major H. W. Johnson, Vice-President—Col. Sgt. W. H. Grant, W. R. G. Secretary—Major R. H. Nichol, Captain—F. A. C.

The schedule will be arranged next week. The first league games will be played Jan. 2.

WERE OFFERED BRIDES

National League Investigating

Grave Charges, Outcome of

N. Y.-Chicago Game.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Even more sensational than the tumultuous close of the recent National League playing season were the closing hours of the league's annual meeting here to-day, when charges of attempted bribery of umpires, and the umpires who officiated at the game that decided the championship of 1929, between New York and Chicago, at the Polo Grounds, Oct. 8, were sprung, and the magnates appointed a committee to probe them, even intimating that criminal prosecutions might follow the investigation committee's report.

So rare are accusations of bribery in connection with organized baseball, and so well-sentimented were the charges presented to-day, and officially made public by the league in a statement signed by representatives of all its clubs, that the news created a profound stir and in large measure revived the conditions of heat and turmoil which had accompanied the settlement of the championship dispute two months ago. Although it is now known that the league has for the past two days been considering the subject of executive sessions, the matter first came into official notice when President Fullam to-day formally presented it, and the representatives of the league drew up a statement for the public.

Some of the alleged bribes are known, but none of the persons, whose names are withheld at this time, are in any way connected with organized baseball. The league has appointed a committee, consisting of Messrs. T. Brann (chairman), Charles H. Ebbets, August Herrmann and Harry Fullam, to make a most thorough investigation.

The Eastern League and American Association people decided not to do anything more or while in regard to breaking from the National Association. They will wait until Jan. 1, when the national commission is to consider the minor league tangle further, before taking any additional steps. The national board of arbitration of the minor leagues went over the requests of the Eastern League and American Association. The board will meet again to-morrow and settle a number of pending cases.

Some surprise was manifested at the Pacific attitude of the rebellious league, which is dated for Jan. 1 at Cincinnati, to attend to the matter of bringing the outlaw state league into the fold as special meeting of society, not consistently be asked by the two leagues, so that the league will be in a position to agree to a postponement of their case.

It was learned on excellent authority, says the Sun, that the demands of the Eastern League and the American Association for recognition in the major league class will be turned down by the national commission. The national board of arbitration of the minor leagues, also the National Association of Minor Leagues, will be no official meeting of society, not consistently be asked by the two leagues, so that the league will be in a position to agree to a postponement of their case.

Prof. Messrs. Johnson and Pulliam, of the commission are expected to visit California this month, to attend to the matter of bringing the outlaw state league into the fold as special meeting of society, not consistently be asked by the two leagues, so that the league will be in a position to agree to a postponement of their case.

BOSS SULLIVAN'S METHODS.

President Coubertin of Olympic Committee on American Leaders.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Baron Pierre de Coubertin, president of the International Olympic Committee, in a letter addressed to Prof. E. M. Sloane of Columbia University, set up anew the cudgels of his organization, which has been fighting for the Olympic games in London last summer.

In his letter to Prof. Sloane, who is one of the members of the American Olympic Committee, the baron expressed a spirited protest against the baron of the Plan of the American Olympic Committee, which he said was an organization to take the lead in calling to the Olympic games of 1932.

Baron de Coubertin says that it is the business of the International Olympic Committee to discuss such questions as we are to meet in Berlin next May, and he says that he is going to decide where the Olympic games of 1932 are to take place. We all know, of course, that he has been fighting for the Olympic games in London last summer.

The Shamrocks of Montreal are taking a strong stand against the high prices asked by the promoters of the 1932 Olympic games. They are refusing to consider the sums asked by some of the promoters, who are difficult to make even a guess at the men's probable line up, but probably the season's end will be decided by the men who are holding out for enhanced sums, and have been unable to secure a right wing.
