JOHN CATTO & SON SPRING APPAREL eadv Millinery

Fashion pointers and features. NEW ARRIVALS DAILY—$18.00, $20.00, $22.00, $25.00, $27.00, $30.00 up.

Wash Fabrics

Fabrics for Spring and Summer Wear

Zephyrs, Chambrays, Ginghams, Linenettes, Cambrics, Crepes, Delaines, Challies, Shantung Zephyrs, Dress Linens, etc.

Dress Fabrics

in every leading fabric and shade, embracing a fine range of Single Cos-Special attention is deserved by our exceptional showing of rough sur-

Honans, Assams, Tussorahs, etc.
The demand for Sathas, "Oriental" and "Charmeuse," is still strong. We have a magnificent showing of shades

Spring Coats

Splendid showing of Ladies' Spring Coats of all kinds, ranging from th useful short jacket at, say, $5.00, t the Splendid Silk Pattern Garments at $100.00 each. SEE OUR DISPLAN AND YOU WON'T BE DISAPPOINT

MAIL ORDERS UNDERSTANDING-LY FILLED.

JOHN CATTO & SON 55 TO 61 KING STREET EAST. TORONTO.

TIMES AND BOURASSA.

LONDON, April 2.—(C.A.P.)—The Times gives a two column article on Henri Bourassa, prognosticating he will be a very influential figure in Canadian affairs and particularly the evolution of the settlement of the status of Canada within the empire. The Times editorially concludes that French Canada will rally in the future to the imperial ideal, which aims at the maintenance of the historic guarantee of language, religion and institutions by the joint resources of

FEDERAL APPOINTMENTS ..

OTTAWA, April 2 .- (Special)-The ette to-morrow will an following appointments: J. C. Blain, St. Catharines, clerk of customs; C. H. Bissell, Prescott, deputy collector of inland revenue; W. J. Sykes, Toronto, excise officer; G. C. Church, Ottawa, assistant-inspector weights and measures; Charles Granton, Prescott, third-class excise officer on probation.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS. Four hundred miners in the Keystone Colliery, near Pittston, Pa., have struck owing to wage reductions.

An exploding lamp at Big Flats, N.
Y., resulted in the building being burned and a woman cremated.

Virginia towns report an earthquake shock early yesterday.

The 24th Mexican Congress is no

Dr. Wenceslau de Lima is trying to organize a new cabinet for Portu-

ANYONE CAN OWN A PIANO. Fifty Cents a Week is All That is Needed to Secure a Good Intru-ment.

Square pianos, all in good condition, bearing the names of Stoddard, Dunham, Steinway, Chickering, Emerson and Heintzman & Co., are being offered by Heintzman & Co., Limited, 115-117. West King-street, Toronto, at from $65

ters, Miss E. Elsper, Miss Clarke, Miss N. Palmer, Verna Bowen, Harold Wat-son, Gordon Chapman, Mr. J. Scott, J. R. Walter Wedlock, Miss Sternberg

The Leading Cafe. Our reputation has been built largely on our 25c dinners. Every seasonable dish. Dainty service. Williams' Cafe. 179 Yonge-street. Branch at 207. edif

"Salome" Too Bad. BOSTON, April 2.- The opera "Sa the Manhattan Grand Opera Co. intended to present at the Boston Theatre next Thursday afterngon, will not be given because of pro-tests from Gov. Eben S. Draper, Mayor George A. Hibbard and leading church-

Harper, Customs Broker, McKinnon Buinlding, Toronto. "Midway" Annexation. The board of control will next Thursday meet representatives of the "midway" section of York County regarding

THE 'SAVOY

YONGE AND ADELAIDE STS.

Candy Department—Choice Can-kinds, and our display of Easter Nov-elties is one of the best in the city. Soda Fountains—Delicious Ice Creams: Sodas, Frappes, Parfaits, Sundaes and Ices, Japanese Tea Rooms—Te a s. will find a case of this delightful min-s and many others all things are important water a valuable addition to his and many others all things are important was missed.

The Peast That Was Missed.

Your the honorable rentismen.

Special Lunch—Every day, 12 till Open Evenings Till 11 o'clock.

THE WEATHER

OBSERVATORY, TORONTO, April 2. (8 p.m.)—The low area, which was this morning over Manitoba, is now centred to the west of Lake Michigan, and the depression, which was off the South Atdepression, which was off the South Atlantic, is moving northward. Light in Dainty Headwear. There are many marvelously pretty Pattern Hats in our showing, and no matter what the requirements, we can suit you for Easter.

Stylish Suits

Containing all the latest New York Fashion pointers and features. NEW AURIVALS DAHLY—$18.00, $20.00,

Lower. Lakes and Georgian Bay—
Strong winds; cool, with light falls of rain or kleet.

Ottawa Valley and Upper St. Lawrence—2002 and unsettled, with light

Sir Wilfrid said he was an old mem-

miid.	THE	BAROM	English sp
Time.				19
8 a.m			Bar. 29.62	Wind.
Noon 2 p.m	••••••	37	29.60	4 8.
4 p.m 8 p.m		37		*
Mean	of day.	35; diff	29.46 erence 1	20 E.
rage, 1 rain and	above:	highest	. 40: 10	west, 31
No.	-	HIP AF	-27

g
	STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.
	Apr. 2 At From Lombardia New York Genos
80	Caledonian Boston Manchester
	MongolianPortlandGlasgow RyndamRotterdamNew York FinlandMadeiraNew York
3	HamburgGibraltar New York
	Hamburg. Gibraltar New York Italia. Marseilles New York Neckar Naples New York
	Emp. IrelandSt. John Liverpool

TO-DAY IN TORONTO.

April 3.
Laymen's Mission Congress, Massey Hail, 9.45 a.m., 8 p.m.; denominational meetings, 2.30 p.m.
Laying of corner-stone of Transportation Building, Exhibition Grounds, 3.
Goodeve, M.P., of Kootenay, at Central and South Toronto Conservative Club, Simcoe-street, 8.
Canadian Institute—T. Aird Murray, C.E., on "Modern Methods of Sewage Treatment," 8.
The Progressive Thought Club, Forum Building, James Simpson on "Edward Bellamy's Ideal," at 8.

The F. W. MATTHEWS CO. FUNERAL DIRECTOR 285 SPADINA AVENUE. PRIVATE AMBULANCE SERVICE.
Phones—College 791-792. 13

CANNING-At Seaforth,

MUNRO—On Friday afternoon, at the Casion and withdraw."

Mr. Borden said it was not necessary for the prime minister to say to whom he applied the remark, because he had admitted that he had made it in represent cemetery.

Mr. Borden said it was not necessary for the prime minister to say to whom he applied the remark, because he had admitted that he had made it in retaliation for something that Mr. Fostern Florida.

Givens-street. Toronto, Louisa, beloved wife of John A. Tilt.

Funeral on Monday for 9,30 a.m. mass to St. Peter's Church. Interment in Toronto. Chatham papers please copy.

Premier Pleads Guilty.

"I never said under false pretenses," declared Sir Wilfrid, while the opposition was all attention for the expected retraction. But Sir Wilfrid merely added, "I have never made any ac-HORNTON—On Friday, April 2, 1909, William James, only beloved son of Mri and Mrs. Albert Thornton, aged to the honorable member from North Funeral from 67 Marjory-avenue to St. James' Cemetery on Monday afternoon. April 5. have placed myself under your ruling, I shall proceed."

in her 82nd year.
Funeral on Saturday, at 1.30 p.m.,
from her above address to Pine Grove Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM.

CHARLES A. CONNORS (Formerly with B.D. Humphrey) UNDERTAKER. 505 Yonge Street. Phone North 1380.

LONDON, April 2.-(C. A. P.)-The News, referring to Canada's defence proposals, says that one thing is certain, the supremacy of the empire is absolutely essential for the preservation foster returned. of the colonies, but emphasizes that it "There is no is against the whole tradition of Britain to claim or receive assistance from the colonies and still maintain an undivided voice in control.

Lunch counters and dining room for business men. E. Sullivan. 246.

Quebec's King's Plate. MONTREAL. April 2.—(Special.)—The Montreal Jockey Club have decided to acceede to the petition of the breeders and owners and have reversed their decision to run the Quebec King's Plate in the fall for this year only. The decision was arrived at after a lengthy meeting of the club's executive.

In the Duckpin league Hawks were fortunate in taking three straights from the leaders, as Capt. Maxwell fell away bodly, rolling a total of only 247.

In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love. With cuote this, "To the pure ail things are couldn't have stopped the investigation the well-known properties that Radnor pure," and the corollary of this is that more suddenly, "and in many other is known to possess the love-iorn swain will find a case of this delightful min-s

During Mr. Pearson's absence, Merritt of his own ground," said Sir Wilfrid. moderate prices and prompt service.

During Mr. Pearson's absence, Merritt

Brown will have charge of his Bible class at Metropolitan Church, Sunday,

Continued From Page 1.

back," Sir Wilfrid rose, but the turback," Sir Wilfrid rose, but the turmoil would not subside.

Mr. Borden Interferes.

Mr. Borden then for the first time took part in the affair. His rising cominanded instant silence.

"Perhaps I misunderstood the right
hon. gentleman," began Mr. Borden,
"I hope I did, but I certainly understood him to suggest in the plainest possible was that the member for North Toronto manipulated trust funds. I am bound to accept his statements as to what he intended to say.
They meant either that or they meant They meant either that or they meant nothing, and if he is prepared to say that he did not mean that, I am bound Endless variety of dainty Wash Fabrics for Spring and Summer Wear Zephyrs, Chambrays, Ginghams, Linenettes, Cambrics, Crepes, Defaines, Challies, Shantung Zephyrs, Dress Linens, etc.

Wool and Silk

Olitawa valiety and unsettled, with light show or rain.

Lower St. Lawrence and Gulf—Fresh to strong winds, mostly easterly, becoming unsettled with sleet or snow. Maritime—Increasing easterly winds, followed by rain or sleet.

Superior—Fresh to strong north and northwesterly winds, mostly fair and cool, with a few snow flurries.

Manitoba—Westerly winds; fair, and milder.

Saskatchewan and Alberta—Fine and the proceeds would he be expected not to retaaliate?

Sir Wilfrid repeated that what he said was in retaliation for the remark of Mr. Foster in the afternoon.

Speaker Marcil contended that the fensive. The offence might have been conveyed by inference, but that was a mattr which every member would have to judge for himself. He would not declare one way or another.
"I have to take the words as they are actually spoken," said the speaker, who further explained that Mr. Foster's version of the incident of the afternoon was the correct one. "Better let the debate proceed," he observed. Th prime minister arose, but Mr. Foster was not satisfied. "Take it back," he called to the lead-r of the house. "Taking it back won't make it any less true," said Col. Talbot, above the The prime minister read Foster's words. "And now," he said, "I will pass to the subject which is before the

Mr. Foster insisted. The speaker had ruled that the remarks by inference applied to him. "To whom else could they stoly?" asked Mr. Foster, amid wild cheering of the government supporters.

Mr. Speaker said he failed to see where the remark applied to Mr. Foster directly. There was more than one Annie Treynor, late of Scarboro, beloved wife of William Canning, and mother of Rev. Father Canning, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Toronto, in the 84th year of herage.

Funeral from St. James' Church, Seaforth, on Saturday, at 9.30 a.m.

The seaforth of Scarboro, beloved the seaforth of Scarboro, beloved the speaker," asked Mr. Fogles, which was a speaker, and Mr. Fogles, which is the speaker, asked Mr. Fogles, and the seaforth of the speaker, asked Mr. Fogles, and the seaforth of the speaker, asked Mr. Fogles, and mother the speaker, asked Mr. Fogles, and mother the speaker, asked Mr. Fogles, and mother the speaker, asked Mr. Fogles, and the speaker, asked Mr. Fogles, asked Mr. Fogl they offensive?"

the prime minister.

"The right honorable gentleman."

entrance, and Mr. Foster smiled.
Should Be Careful.

Replying to the Resolution.

man could serve two masters."

what bitterly, "I admit my responsibility and express my regret." As for the government's case in this matter, it was about as indefensible as that of the Newmarket canal, said Mr Borden. The government might say what it liked about the resolution, but et the investigation be granted. A Rub Both Ways.

commission that was destitute of Unfounded Says Borden.

irst instance.

Mr. Meighen, who had resumed the debate in the afternoon, contended that failure to detect irregularities was crime against the constitution. It was state proceed."

THOMPSON—On April 1, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Hutchison, Mrs. James Thompson, widow of the late James Thompson, in her 82nd year.

Stall proceed."

But this would not go. Calls were to say that his skirts were cleared by the Cassels commission. The government took good care to manacle Judge Cassels so that it was impossible for him to go after the responsible minim to go after the responsible min-

The speaker could only repeat what he had said, that offensive words were Mr. Meighen denounced the argumen unparliamentary and they must be taken back. The question was, "Were that the people at the polls had cleared the character of the minister. It was not until Sir Wilfrid Laurier had ex-More shouts, "Sit down," from the government side, and counter demonercised his powers of inciting passion and prejudice that victory was secured, and a meagre victory at that, since the strations of encouragement were heard as Mr. Foster arose and stood facing Liberal party was in a minority of the

A. K. MacLean attacked the com exclaimed Mr. Foster, "has said that missioners vigorously, denouncing them as "three fussy old gentlemen," the words were offensive and that they were addressed to me. The prime minister should give an example to the who were more anxious to make a sensational report than to ascertain facts house," he began deliberately. Then in quickened tones he declared that he or justify their findings. Foster Begins.

never made insinuation. When I have It was a pure accident that brough charges to make I'll make them," he about the marine enquiry, said Mr. Foster. The civil service had been callnow. And I shall obey the rule of the chair. And I withdraw every word I said." added, thumping his destk, "as I do surate with the increased cost of living The demand was fair and the basis o A cheer went up from the opposition side that could be heard at the main it easily ascertained. But Sir Wilfrid proscratinated and thereby fell into the hole. He procrastinated by the old method of commission. He appointed Sir Wilfrid regarded him thus for an Messrs. Courtney, Bazin and Fyshe as instant and then went on: "But the a commission to enquire into the civil service system and the rate of salary. honorable member for North Toronto must not try to attack people in this Not a word about suspicions of wrong-Not a word about suspicions of wrong-doing. Sir Wilfrid was angry when the report came down and raged at the commission because they "had gone beyond their commission." Yet the commissioners had but lifted the lid a little bit from one of the pots, and were so astounded by the stench that they would give a hint of it to the general public. "And I am able to look after it," Mr. "There is no man more ready to make insinuations" was the prime minister's warm rejoinder, made to the accompaniment of cheers and counter

Then followed the Cassels commission. It was to go no further than the reflections of the civil service commis-The storm having then subsided Sir Wilfrid Laurier went on to say that the reason the government could not accept the motion of Mr. Doherty was sioners and only to touch one depart. that its promises were ill-founded. The record showed the commissioners said ment. It was restricted, and even in the appointment of the counsel Mr. Brodeur didn't get beyond the old level of politics and appointed two Liberal they had made an investigation of all the departments, and had made it as full as possible. There was no ground either for the conclusion in the modifier for th was shunted off.

ing there was wrongdoing in other departments also. The mover had When a certain gentleman who was quoted scripture to the effect that "no supplying broken stone to the govern-man could serve two masters." supplying broken stone to the govern-ment at Sorel, at fancy prices, declared, Mr. Doherty: "It was the commissioners who quoted it."

"and I had to get all my stone from the County of Rouville," if a ghost of "Well," replied Sir Wilfrid, "I shall the middle ages had appeared they more suddenly, "and in many other cases," added Mr. Foster, "the throttle to the impure all things are impure." cases," added Mr. Foster, "the throttle He added bitterly that to Mr. Foster was shut for fear somebody would be

Now, the honorable gentlemen had the shamelessness to boast that they If recklessness and corruption exist- didn't walt for charges, that they had ed in the departments it was not a caused an investigation to be made case for a demand for investigation but and had dismissed all the black sheep.

ber of the house and he was not aware that he had ever said an offensive word of anyone. He had tried to be fail, but he was human after all, and if any honorable member tells him to his face that because he did not take a certain action it was because he was arraid of the consequences, and that he shared in the proceeds would he be expected not to retaaliste?

Mr. Foster Explains.

Mr. Foster

The opposition cheered heartily as Mr. Borden rose to reply. He would only refer to the recent unfortunate before the house rises. incident, he said, to observe that when Sir Wilfrid told the house it was his duty to set a good example, it was regrettable that the right hon, gentle-

At Kingston-Norman Clark, a life-long resident and veteran of 1837; aged man hadn't set a good example in the first instance.

Proceeding, Mr. Borden declared that every statement of Sir Wilfrid as to there having been a full investigation by the civil service commissioners was unfounded in fact. And with that Mr. Borden proceeded to duote from the report where the commissioners declared, "It was absolutely impossible to enquire into every department," and the commissioners added, "But to do the work with any pretentions to thoroness would tak much more time than would probably be agreeable to the government."

At this last quotation the opposition applauded enthusiastically, and Mr. Borden proceeded to ask how, in the face of this, Sir Wilfrid could say that the investigation had been a complete than the investigation had been a feel of the survived by her husband and four sons: Thomas, contractor! James, manager at the T. Eaton Co.; William, David, wholesale jeweler.

den broke in with an explanation, which ended in his charging that the commissioners had no brains. Did that mean, asked the opposition leader, that the minister of militia and his colleagues had seen fit to appoint

After Mr. Borden, seven or eight Quebec members spoke and then Mr. Pugsley took the floor after midnight. It is expected that a vote will be taken nan hadn't set a good example in the 91.

elected officers for the ensuing season:
Hon president, Mr. W. C. Chambers;
president, Mr. James Evans; vice-president, Mr. James Stewart; secretary-treasurer, Mr. Alex, Yule; assistant secretary, Mr. William Montgomery; committee of management, Messrs, J. Lavery, George McIntosh and the Rev. C. Scudamore; representative to W.B.A., George D. Lavery.

A TRAITOR'S PUNISHMENT. Lieut. Ulimo's Easy Life as a Pris-oner on Devils Island.

The first man, a Paris contemporary observes, lost the earthly paradise by a fault, and man to-day has found it by a crime. Ex-Lieut, Ullmo, who was condemned as a traitor and who is now on Devils Island, is the person Started Him is now on Devils Island, is the person referred to, and if our contemporary is not misinformed the assertion is not very wide of the mark.

The ex-lieutenant has a nice little cottage; his costume is white fiannel, and he wears white boots. He rises late and spends a long time dressing. His toilet table, we learn, is laden with scent bottles, and in the room is a portrait which bears a strong resemblance to La Belle Lison. His study is well supplied with books, theatrical and other reviews, such as one would find in a country gentleman's house. Hooks on philosophy also find a place, the ex-lieutenant's favorite writers being Kant, Fichte, and Schelling.

The proposed amendments are more simpact this year than formerly and in-

F. C. Waghorne's junior series proposi-Dr. McGibbon's (Bracebridge)home-and-commissioners added, "But to do the work with any pretentions to thorose would probably be agreeable to the government."

At this last quotation the opposition applauded enthusiastically, and Mr. Borden proceeded to ask how, in the face of this, Sir Wilfrid could say that the investigation had been complete and that everything was right in the departments.

"Oh," put in Mr. Boyce, "to the pure all things are pure."

After the laughter had subsided Mr. Borden went on to quote the remarks of the commissioners as to the militia department, which sended in with an explanation. Which ended in with an explanation. Which ended in his conference in the content of the mat at the investigation and the council chamber of the commissioners as to the militial department, when Sir Frederick Borden broke in with an explanation.

No. Development

25 Breadalbane-street, at the advanced age of $2 years, had been a resident of Toronto for over 50 years, and was part and the the tables on Kid an active worker for over 30 years in the cause of temperance. She is surticed by putting him to the mat at the T.B.C. League.

Artie Edmunds Throws Batten.

Artie Edmunds turned the tables on Kid an active worker for over 30 years in the tables on the laddent threating threating and four sons: Thomas, contractor! James, manager at the T. Eaton Co.; William, David, the Star Theatre last night in two out of three a few to the work ago by putting him to the mat at the T.B.C. League.

Artie Edmunds Throws Batten.

Artie Edmunds Throws Batt

Now in an Orchestra

"I could not play a note when Lyeceived the first lesson from you and now I am playing in a good orchestra of ten pieces, and can read music and play as well as any of them. I shall always recommend your home study school of music." That is what Eli Smith, Jr., R. R. No. 2, Marietta, Ill., writes after a one-year course on the Eli Smith's only expense under out free tuition plan was for postage and music. That cost him less than Two Cemts a day, and he was under no further obligation whatever.

If you wish to learn to play the Plano, Organ, Violin, Guitar, Mandolin, Banjo, Cornet or learn to Sing, our teachers will come to you by mail once a week with a lesson until you can read music and play your instrument to your own satisfaction.

Over ten thousand weekly leasons are now being sent to homes all over the world to pupils in all walks of life, from seven years of age to seventy.

life, from seven years of age to seventy.

Our free tuition plan will enable you to get weekly lessons costing I seless than two cents a day. It will be your only expense and places 170u under no further obligation whatever. Don't say you cannot learn music till you send for our booklet and free tuition offer. It will be sent by are turn mail free. Address U. S. SCHOOL OF MUSIC, Box 316, 225 Fifth-avenue, New York City.

Brownies Beat Diamonds

Mercantile League. The following games in the Mercantile League were rolled on the C.B.C. alleys last evening, when Eaton's Rickeys woon A. J. Davis' (Newmarket) age limit de-claration amendment.

Francis Nelson's (Toronto) eligibility of players idea.

Charles Buchanan's (West Toronto)

Charles Buchanan's (West Toronto)

Eaton's Rickeys—

Toronto)

Eaton's Rickeys—

Toronto) Charles Buchanan's (west Toronto) change of residence clause.

B. McGuire's (Orangeville) association banking clause.

And J. Vanstone's (Stratford) new clauses about referees and ruled off playTotals

Can. Kodak No. 1—
Totals

Exhibition Baseball.

At Birmingham, Ala,—Brooklyn (Nat.)

13, Birmingham (South.) 3.

At Memphis—St. Louis (Nat.) 4, Memphis (South.) 3.

At Dayton, Ohio—New York Nationals (second team) 8, Dayton (Centrals) 2.

At Little Rock—Pittsburg (Nat.) 4, Little Rock (South.) 0.

At Spartanburg, S.C.—Boston (Nat. se-

PRIBL

うさかがま

1 ons

mexe

3 201 2000

N OB

atoma

sioni

-010-061

The Belle of Bald-Head Row

Is the title of the catchy song hit which will be sung by Bessie Browning of "The Land of Nod" Company at the Grand next week. The complete words and music will be published

In Sunday's World

Illustrated Features: Views of Little Champlain, Quebec; Winnipeg and Harbord Collegiate Institutes' Cadets on parade, Choir of Cornishmen's Association, West End Hockey Players, and London's Latest Hat Styles.

Kelley's Pets at Practice

A full page of snappy characteristic illustrations of Toronto's players now practising at Chatham.

Great Marathon Derby

The World will be in direct telegraphic communication with its staff correspondent on the New York Polo Grounds Race Course, and will publish a complete account of the race in all editions. Pictures of the winner and the other contestants, together with spicy gossip on the features of the race, will also be published on the sporting

Order Your Sunday

World To-day

TORES

ail Depart-

es of work.

RANGE

FEST AND

GHTER

d hole on right.

atch is applied. can be viewed

m of oven. No

VENIENT

TREET

IE'S

Java and e at 45c lb. y itself. akfas! ne-

Co., Ltd West. "BOOSTER."

adquarters at rection with the traffic, express work of locating and general de-urces of the ter-ystem.

ny that rdinary he best Ordinis your waste Water. saway eaches iter, is