Sum Paid in Marked Bills and Now Junk Dealer Faces Two Serious Charges.

Igaac Rohr, 42 years, a junk dealer, living at 73 Agnes-street, was arrested last night by Detective Tipton. He is charged with compounding a felony and a further charge of subornation of per-

The complainant in the case is Jos. W. Gurofsky, 110 Agnes-street, man-ager of the Agnes-street branch of the Friday last Mr. Gurofsky was served with a summons charging him with theft of a bicycle from Harry Rohr, 15 years old, a nephew of the man arrest-

Gurofsky says the wheel was left on his premises last December and that he thought it belonged to his brother Louis, and therefore used it. When the boy claimed the wheel Gurofsky turned it over to the police and upon finding that it was not his brother's wheel asked the police to give it to the boy if he ed the police to give it to the boy if he proved ownership. He told the boy that he had done this on Friday morning, but Friday afternoon he was serv-

Mr. Gurofsky was surprised and asked his friend Sam Swartz, 123 1-2 Agnes-street, to enquire. The boy's parents could tell him nothing, but the lad, himself, said that his uncle (the prisoner) had advised him to take out the summons. Then Swartz sent for Isaac Rohr and asked the reason. Rohr according to Swartz told him that he wanted $68 which was in dispute between himself and Gurofsky and which Rohr had paid following the arbitration of Rabbi Weinraub and five other anything to clear Gurofsky of the theft charge or to spirit the boy away so that he could not give evidence when the case comes up this morning.

Gurofsky had had Inspector Cuddy take the numbers of the bills with which he was to pay the price for his clearance. He paid the money after Rohr had signed a receipt undertaking to have the boy clear Gurofsky of the charge.

POLITICS IN IRELAND

Retirement of O'Brien Has Wrought

T. P. O'Connor's London cable in The Chicago Tribune: Turning to Ire-land, it is impossible to give your reado'Brien has made in the situation. Veterans, altho they were bracing themselves up to a final fight with O'Brien and had indeed, already beaten him in almost every corner of Ireland, were yet aghast at the prospect of being diverted from their fight with the common enemy to this new campaign to put down mutiny in their own ranks. Those, like Redmond, Dillon, and myself, who had gone thru all the horrors, and humiliations, and parleys of the old split, shrank from such an experience again.

n experience again. And O'Brien, tho beaten by cases in the law courts, by sporadic meetings, by speeches, and by his terrible newspaper, could still give enough trouble to make the movement difficult and to inspire the idea—false the it was—of division and dissension, tho the only divisions and dissensions were that the obstinate jurors did not yield their opinion to the opinion of the one juror who claimed to be infallible.

Another and even more dangerous effect of the O'Brien agitation was that it encouraged the landlords to resist the Birrell bill. Hoping that O'Brien would break up the Irish movement, encouraged by him in demanding the same extravagant prices movement, encouraged by him in demanding the same extravagant prices as they got under the Wyndham Act, the Irish landlords would have been encouraged also to reject Birrell's terms in the hope of getting a better one when the Tories returned to of-

Their difficulties are great, for while they are waiting for great, for while they are waiting for per day. Centrally located. 000 of arrears of money to be wiped out, their waiting would be long—their creditors in the shape of lenders or insurance companies will be pressing them for the heavy interest they owe

Now what happens when an estate is sold but the money is not advanced by the state is that the tenant pays about 3 1-2 per cent. to the landlord on the price agreed to, but 3 1-2 is much less than the landlord himself is paying to his creditor-that is much more likely to be 6 or 7 per cent. And, therefore, tho the landlords are shouttherefore, the the landlords are shouting loudly now and the their representatives in the house of commons adopt a hostile attitude to Birrell's mare suitable at the solution of the solution is that they will
