

HENSHALL IS EXPECTED TO WORRY CURLY BROWN

Rival Track Managers Will Clash
at Havana—New Orleans
Opening.

(From The Collier News Bureau.)
Chicago, Oct. 13.—According to information vouchsafed me by Judge Joseph A. Murphy, general manager of the Business Men's Racing Association at New Orleans, January 1 will in all probability be the opening date of the racing at the fair grounds track. The attempt of Curly Brown to open the City Park track, according to the same source of information, seems to have ended as futilely as those in closest touch with the situation predicted they would and Brown will undoubtedly try to all that he can attend to in saving his own hide at Havana, where he will meet with most strenuous competition on the new race track promoted by Charles T. Henshall and his associates.

CHASING THE WHOLE CREW.

Reno, Nevada, Oct. 13.—After a thorough investigation into the race run by the horse Delaney, when apprentice rider, G. Leeds, gave him a suspicious looking ride, Leeds confessed to the stewards that he was approached in his room at Hatfield, an owner, and St. M. Hartman, a San Francisco business man, offering him the purse for his employer and $200 for himself to pull the horse, but the rider claimed that he refused to accept the proposition.
The affair looked bad, however, and the Nevada stewards warned E. J. Reiney, Tom Hatfield and the owners of the track and denied Hartman all privileges.
