"The Prince of Pilsen" will be pre ginning Monday, with matihee on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, and Saturday. This Pixley and Luders' musical comedy is beginning its third year in this country, while it is also being played in the British provinces following a run of five months in London. The company includes Ida Stanhope, Jeannette Bageard, Almyra Forrest, Marie Welsh, Stella Martine, Jess Dandy, Iver Donaldson, Arthur Anderson, Percy-Ames, and J. Francis Sullivan. Mr. Donaldson and Mr. Anderson were the originals as the real Prince of Pilsen and the American naval lieutenant, and this will be Miss Bageard's third season as Sidonle, the ginning Monday, with matinee on val lieutenant, and this will be Miss Bageard's third season as Sidonie, the French maid. Miss Stanhope and Mr. Dandy and Miss Forrest are well known as the widow, the Cincinnati brewer and Edith Adams, the Vassar girl. The new-comers are Miss Welsh, who was with the Tivoli Opera Co. of San Francisco for three seasons; Mr. Ames, an English actor, who has been seen in several American productions, and Mr. Sullivan, who has won excellent results in vaudeville.

The latest of Anglo-Swedish comedies is "Tilly Olson." The author has not, however, attempted to create another "Yon Yonson," but has made the leading role a young Swedish girl. There are no heroics in the play except what fall to the role of Tilly. The comedy is emphasized more than the serious phases of the play and there is said to be an abundance of really entertaining episodes in the drama.

Ringling Bros. Circus. The prima donna is Miss Marion Stanley and the soubrette Miss Gertrude Hoffman, both comic opera women of ability and charming personality. During the week, besides the regular matinees on Wednesday and Saturday, a special matinee will be given on Thursday (Thanksgiving Day).

Christmas production of "The Messiah" by the Toronto Festival Chorus and Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. F. H. Torrington, will be held on Thursday evening, Dec. 15. The soloists will be W. Braxton Smith, tenor; Miss Elleen Millett, soprano; Miss Grace Lillian Carter, contralto; H. Ruthven MacDonald, baritone. Subscription lists are open at the Toronto College of Music and at Massey Hall.

Eivia Crox Seabrooke, who plays the tropical-natured sovereign of the Spoopjus, Queen Lill, in "King Dodo" this season, is a widely known singer and actress of extensive experience and supreme ability. In the part of "Queen Lill" Miss seabrooke is happily cast. She was a member of the opera troupe that appeared at the Princess some years ago under Robert Cummings.

Cora Williams, the sprightly sou-Cora Williams, the sprightly soul-bret has scored a splendid success as Annette in "King Dodo." The part affords Miss Williams ample opportuni-ties for the display of her fine voice, as well as her cleverness as a dancer, besides permitting her to wear some "stunning" costumes.

day, comes to renew her triumphs on the concert stage on this side of the Atlantic during a tour which begins at German places out at the exposition," said George E. Gill, who is here looking after "A Little Outcast" Co., which comes to the Majestic at an early date, "be sure to shut the cover of your beer mugs down tight, for if you leave it up it is a signal that you want more beer. I nearly got swamped in the beverage before I caught on. Each time after I swallowed the quart, I left the stein with the cover up, and each time it was, in consequence, taken away and brought back full. At about the sixth I gently remonstrated. "I really don't think I can manage it," I really don't think I can manage it," I really don't think I can manage it, "I really don't think this one now you've brought it, but it must be the last, tho I am considered a pretty good hand at this elbow raising business." "But you sit there with your mug open." said At the Majestic Next Week.

Tilly is first a "bound girl" on a Minnesota farm, but later is found amidgity scenes. She eventually turns out to be an heiress and marries the man of her choice. The play is in four acts and eight scenes and the scenic environment is said to be unusually handsome. The title role will be played by Miss Gertrude Swiggett and a strong company is promised. "Tilly Olson" is the attraction at the Majestic Theatre next week.

BORE DISGRACE How a Lady Cured Her Dissipated Husband with a Secret Remedy.

For years I endured the disgrace due to my husband's drunkenness, but at last I decided to try your tasteless Samaria Remedy. I got some and gave it to him in his food. He never noticed it at all, and to my joy it quickly banished his craving for liquor. He is completely cured now, and we are again happy and prosperous. After a while I told him what I had done, and he acknowledged that I had saved him, for he could never have quit by himself.

I heartily advise all women afflicted as I was, to try your remedy.

Electricity is now recognized to be one of the essentials as well as one of the mysteries of life. Everyone contains electricity, and its dominance determines to a great extent the vitality, the magnetic force, the health and strength of the individual; espethe wires on which this electric fluid runs.

THE PROOF—Have you ever felt yourself tingle at the close approach of an electric storm? Ever feel an unaccountable oppression preceding lightning, and note that whereas the approach of lightning frightens some, others, the strong, the high-strung, are apt to be still further exalted

THE REASON.—They are already charged with electricity; lightning to them has no terrors. It's the weak who are sighing for electric force, whose magnetism is all but palsied; they droop as does a parched flower before the coming of rain.

Lucky for them if the lightning playing in the air could yield to them some of its vitalizing force, tho this cannot be. A more gentle
