Want Bricklayers as Building Inspectors

Local Unions Write to Mayor Urging Appointment of Bricklayers and Stonemasons.

Asking for the appointment of a practical stone mason on the city architect's staff of building inspectors, Mayor Geary received a letter on Saturday morning from the local Bricklayers' Union, Nos. 2 and 26. The 'etter claimed that at the present time there was not a practical stone mason connected with the city architect's de-

An American, who will remodel the pertions not under lease, Saturday purchased the northeast corner of Duke and Jarvis-streets. The property is a forested by five separate brick buildings and one frame structure.

On Jarvis-street there is a frontage of 147.9 feat: on Duke there is a frontage necessary of the fact that nearly all buildings were of brick, they thought more inspectors qualified in this way should be employed.
