START IN MONTREAL MARKET STRONG

Consolidated Smelters Absorbs Most of the Early Transactions There

Canadian Press
NEW YORK, March 17.—Extension of buying support for influential rail and industrial shares contrasted with continued selling of specialties at the opening of today's stock market, resulting in marked irregularity of price movements. Atchafalaya, Atlantic Coast Line, General Electric, General Motors and Chesapeake and Ohio opened 1 to 2 points higher. Woolworth S. S. Kresge and other merchandising issues worked lower and U. S. Steel reflected disappointment over the routine nature of yesterday's special meeting of directors.

MONTREAL MARKET
MONTREAL, March 17.—Prices were steady to a shade stronger during the first half hour's trading on the Montreal stock exchange this morning. The volume of business was moderate sized, with Consolidated Smelters absorbing a large part of it. This issue opened up 1/2 at 210 1/2, sold down to 209 and then firmed to 210 1/2. Brazilian Traction was quiet and up 1/4 at 8 1/2. Brompton Paper was unchanged at 35 and Atchafalaya was steady at 78 1/2.

Morning Stock Letter

NEW YORK, March 17.—There seems to be certain interests who are seeking to make the market popular again by putting up several leading issues. It is only a guess which will succeed. While a good many specialists break down into new ground on selling, a good many of the leading stocks meet fairly good support. It is doubtful if the market has a bid break at this time, but we expect a great deal of irregularity.

"KID" TRAPPED BY "CAMERA EYE"

Fugitive Who Jumped Bail After 1914 Conviction Recognized By Detective

NEW YORK, March 17.—The Albany Kid, better known to his former schoolmates as George Franklin, but concealed by the police to be the dean of coin matchers, was in the line-up of prisoners at Police Headquarters here recently for the first time in eleven years.

Which is not to say that he would not have been welcome any morning during those eleven years, for two red cards emblazoned with the word "wanted" have been in his file in the Police Headquarters during the entire period. Twice during that time the police here learned of his rest in other cities too late to fetch him.

Detective Joseph A. Daly, Inspector Coughlin's expert on confidence men, was returning from Florida with Kenneth Pellman, an indictment for the larceny of $400 in bonds from John Lowry, of 120 Broadway. He was not facing a consignment of raw sugar here. P. Chaudhry will leave Bermuda and the West Indies on Friday for this port with passengers.

Detective Joseph A. Daly, Inspector Coughlin's expert on confidence men, was returning from Florida with Kenneth Pellman, an indictment for the larceny of $400 in bonds from John Lowry, of 120 Broadway. He was not facing a consignment of raw sugar here. P. Chaudhry will leave Bermuda and the West Indies on Friday for this port with passengers.

RECOGNIZED BUYING TICKET

He was both reflecting on the attractions of the Miami shores he had just left and the scores of coin matchers he had arrested in the by-gone day when he saw a man bustle up to the ticket office, slap some change on the counter and grab a ticket which was thrust through the window. For a moment he was stumped about where he had seen that face before. Then it came to him. "Hello, Mr. Franklin," he hailed the traveler.

The man turned about, looked straight at Daly and started off. "Don't you remember me, Mr. Franklin?" he persisted. "I'm Joe Daly."

"Well, I'm not Mr. Franklin, and I don't know Joe Daly," the man snapped. "Well, unless a lot has happened since I left last week for Florida, Mr. Franklin, I know a man who is most anxious to have a chat with you."

Mr. Franklin, still protesting, was taken along with Pellman to Police Headquarters. When Inspector Coughlin showed him the uncanny resemblance of his fingerprints and photograph to those of George Franklin, alias the Albany Kid, the man grew hesitant.

JUMPED BAIL FROM WORKHOUSE

He was last arrested in New York in 1914 for swindling a man by coin matching. He was sentenced to six months in the workhouse. He appealed and was released on $1,000 bail. The Appellate Division affirmed the conviction, but when his case was called the Albany Kid was not in sight. Four years later he came to the attention of the police in Cleveland, but they did not convict him.

MARITIME HOCKEY MODERN SOCIETY ASSOCIATION MEETS

F. Kelly Urges Closer Attention to Intermediate and Inter-scholastic Hockey

Canadian Press
AMHERST, N. S., March 17.—The annual meeting of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association opened in a quiet manner this morning and the main discussions will be held this afternoon when the balance of the delegates arrive from various points in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. The talk this morning centred around a different territorial arrangement of hockey on Cape Breton Island. The topic was introduced by Captain Thomas Kitchen, who advocated that Sydney and Glace Bay be permitted to draw upon North Sydney for hockey material.

Closer attention to intermediate and inter-scholastic hockey was urged by Vice-President Fred Kelly, of Charlottetown, and resolutions to the effect that the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association look after intermediate and inter-scholastic hockey were brought in.

MANY RESOLUTIONS READY

A resolution relative to the adequate lighting and equipment of Maritime rinks was another subject taken up. R. E. Hyslop, of St. Stephens was appointed as Chairman of the Resolutions Committee with nearly a score of resolutions already in hand.

Walter Bishop of Dartmouth furnished the sensation of the meeting when he asserted that Dartmouth now moved the residence clause and the sound development of home town athletic talent.

There were twenty delegates present at the morning session and this number will be augmented this afternoon.

DEBATE EMBARGO

Canadian Ban on American Publications Discussed in U. S. Senate

ALBANY, N. Y., March 17.—The recent Canadian prohibition against certain publications emanating from the United States was mentioned in the course of a four-hour debate on the "clean books bill" in the Senate and assembly committee today. The clean books bill, a hardy perennial at the capitol is supported by religious and civic organizations who charge that New York yearly puts out "pulpit trash" of publications and is opposed by book and newspaper publishers of the state.

Sponsors of the bill draw the attention of the committee to the Canadian action as indicating the need for censorship.

WAS IN GREAT WAR

The death of Kenneth Williams occurred in this city this morning. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Williams and is survived by his parents, his wife, Roland Williams, Mr. Williams was 34 years of age and was a member of the air force during the great war. The funeral will be held from his parents' residence, 225 Victoria street, on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

She Coughed Night and Day

Until She Used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

Mrs. S. E. Little, 103 Inkerman St., London, Ont., writes: "I got a very severe cold which settled in my bronchial tubes."

I coughed night and day, and although I tried several different remedies I could get no relief until a friend advised me to take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. This I did, and I must say that it gave me almost instant relief. I got rid of my cough very quickly. I hope this testimonial will be the means of helping others.

JOHN S. MALCOLM IS EN ROUTE HOME

Achieves Splendid Curling Record While Competing in Matches Overseas

Detailed records of the recent trip of the Canadian curlers to Scotland and England show that the Canadians, although defeated in the test matches for the Strathcona Cup, put up a very creditable fight before giving away to their opponents. The records of both the Canadian curlers and their rivals show only three out of 11 of the Canadian skips totaled a winning margin in their test matches, while the Scottish and English skips had six on the credit side of the ledger.

NOTABLE WORK

The sensational work of J. S. Malcolm, although he was defeated once when skipping in a test match, was one of the features of the trip. He led both the Canadians and their rivals with a fine total margin of 37 stones. His nearest rival was W. C. Johnston of Edinburgh, with a margin of 29.

Mr. Malcolm, who visited in Great Britain and France after the matches, is on board the C. P. S. liner Montserrat, and will probably arrive here Sunday.

Another New Brunswick curler, R. K. Shives, was among the three skips with a winning margin for the Canadians.

It was only against the pick of the Scottish curlers in the test matches that the Canadians were unsuccessful, according to an account of the trip given in "The Scottish Field," which was secured by The Times-Star through the courtesy of F. C. Beattie. This article showed that against the regular clubs the Canadians were almost always winners by substantial margins.

Rev. Dr. John Roach Straton Berates Palm Beach 400 for Dancing Charleston

PALM BEACH, Fla., March 17.—A congratulatory editorial in a local newspaper addressed to the "social leaders" who graciously unhinged their knees at the Club De Montserrat last Monday night to Charleston for charity, furnished the subject of a violent attack on society and the theatre here by the Rev. Dr. John Roach Straton, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church in New York.

The occasion was a benefit performance by Florence Ziegfeld's "Palm Beach Nights" in which society women took the places of the Follies girls. More than $100,000 was raised for the Good Samaritan Hospital in West Palm Beach.

"Modern society," Dr. Straton said, "has gotten so jazy and woody and so dependent on the feet instead of on the head and so helpless without dancing masters and bootleggers that the transformation is tragic and terrible."

"The fact that the final rehearsals for this charity performance were held on the 'Lafayette' should have been enough in itself to condemn the performance in the eyes of all true Christian people."

He charged that art has been prostituted to profit in the playhouse and said: "The taproot of the modern theatre is money lust, and therefore the tree and its fruitage cannot fail to be vile. You cannot reform a rattlesnake; you cannot purify a polecat; you cannot denature a smallpox epidemic. The more you improve these inherently bad things, the more you strengthen them."

"What shall we say then my friends, to the church people, the business men and the social leaders of today who are foolish enough to imagine that they are really helping by their so-called 'charity' stunts given in connection with these lewd and ruinous forces? Well, we can only say that they are foolish beyond the power of words to describe. The silly doings and the increasing lawlessness of the so-called 'high social set' in America in present years is causing not only criticism and even contempt among the masses of the people but it is causing grave distress to many thoughtful minds."

Deaths

MRS. RENE J. BELL

Mrs. Rene J. Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Whipple, 3 Whipple street, West Saint John, who died at her parents' residence yesterday was formerly Miss Beatrice D. Whipple. She was married in Detroit in last July. Previous to her marriage she was connected with the staff of Byrne and McCroun in this city. She was a life long member of St. Jude's Anglican church and sang in the choir from childhood. She was also a member of the Women's Auxiliary. Mrs. Bell arrived in the city less than two weeks ago with her husband, to visit her parents, and her sudden passing was a severe shock to her family and friends. She is survived by her husband, parents, three brothers and seven sisters. The funeral will be held from her parents' residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be at St. Jude's church.
