Richard Advocates Higher Stumpage Fees on Resuming Debate in Legislature and Urges Every Assistance Be Given to Agriculture

FREDERICTON, N.B., March 30.—Industrial expansion made possible through the hydro electric development of the Grand Falls and on the Nepisiguit river and the construction of huge pulp and paper mills by the International Paper Co., Fraser Companies Ltd., and the Bathurst Company, Ltd., would more than offset direct taxation amounting to but a few dollars for each taxpayer and allay any alarm felt by the people over this impost, F. C. Squires, Government member for Carleton, told the House in his address on the budget this afternoon. New Brunswick, he declared, stood on the threshold of a vitalizing commercial era that would spread good results over the entire province and with such benefits through steady employment and the spending of millions of dollars, the matter of a small tax was not one that would worry them, as claimed by the opposition.

A contrary view was expressed by F. G. Richard, opposition member for Kent, who preceded Mr. Squires in the debate. During the course of his address, he declared the crown lands should be used to secure more revenue and that direct taxation should not be introduced until every other method of indirect taxation had been abandoned.

Mr. Squires made a deep impression on the House by his speech and one of the first to congratulate him personally on it was Hon. Dr. P. J. Veniot, leader of the Opposition. Mr. Squires backed up his arguments with much vigor and during the course of his remarks held the undivided attention of the members, who frequently interrupted with applause.

The adjournment was moved by J. A. Gordon, opposition member for Gloucester, who will continue the debate tomorrow afternoon to be followed by J. W. Smith, Government member for Kings.

MR. RICHARD SPEAKS

Mr. Richard referred in opening to agriculture and immigration and stated every assistance be given to the former industry. Referring to the estimates for the Crown lands, he advocated an increase in stumpage rates to help the revenue of the province and by avoid direct taxation.

He made the country prosperous Mr. Richard claimed that the municipalities did not be overburdened and he ex-

HAS 200 LETTERS, ASKS $50,000

Two hundred letters form the basis of a $50,000 breach of promise suit which Miss Marie Griseau of Chicago is prosecuting against Dr. Leonard A. Enninger of Indianapolis (inset) who says she met him as he was driving his auto along a Chicago boulevard.

cial situation and said that the debt charges of the province in 1925, amounting to $1,500,000, exceeded the revenue of the province in 1925, just ten years ago, by $100,000. This was a truly alarming situation, and it was no wonder that the Veniot administration had been kicked from power. He attacked strongly a policy of government by order-in-council, which he claimed had been carried on by the Foster-Veniot regime, and said that during their rule some $3,363,000 had been expended without legislative sanction before expiring.

Discussing the motion moved by Mr. Michael to increase the stumpage, he said that if it was a sin for the Baxters to increase the stumpage, it was a sin for the government to reduce the rate 50 cents, as had been done last summer. It was a greater sin to reduce it one dollar as had been done by the Veniot government. And yet, Mr. Michael had moved practically a vote of want of confidence, when the government of which Mr. Michael had been a member admitted its alleged incompetency when it had reduced the rate. He did not think this was consistent.

DRIVING OUT CAPITAL

It was all very well, said, "Tax the lumber barons, and he agreed they should pay every cent that was due the province. But there was such a thing as oppressing them and driving out capital. There were two sides to the matter, and he expressed the belief that the province would deal fairly with the lumbermen when the 1927 rates for stumpage were set.

He painted a vivid word picture of the prosperity that would follow the development at Grand Falls and in the Nepisiguit and the construction of pulp mills, whereby thousands of dollars would be spent in erection and employment. The same matter of few dollars extra on their tax bill would not alarm the province, which would share in the benefits of such enterprise.

In concluding, he made a plea for assistance being given in the development of the tourist traffic and threw out the suggestion that it might be well to look into the possibilities of making the Saint John River well and favorably known.

MOTOR DUTIES TO HOLD UNTIL NEEDS HEARD

Matter Will Be Referred to Tariff Board, Ottawa Paper Says

NO CHANGE LIKELY TO RULE THIS YEAR

Rumor Was That Ten Per Cent Reduction Slated After Easter

OTTAWA, March 31.—The Ottawa Evening Journal carries the following item:

"The Journal learns unofficially but authoritatively that the government has decided not to touch the existing duties on motor cars imported into Canada. It has decided instead to refer the matter to the new tariff commission which when constituted will inquire into the tariff requirements of the motor car industry, having regard to productive costs and other considerations and advise the government as to what should be done."

NO CHANGE THIS YEAR

"This means that there will be no alteration in the present duties until next year's budget."

It had been widely rumored that the duty which Mr. Robt. will bring to Parliament after Easter would provide for a 10 per cent. reduction in motor car duties. The government's decision, however, is as indicated above."

Rare Archaeological Treasures Unearthed in Tola Valley by Russian Scientists

MOSCOW, March 31.—Rare and valuable archaeological treasures discovered in Outer Mongolia, by the Russian Geographical Society's expedition under Colonel P. K. Kozlov, are said to disclose the undoubted influence of ancient Greece upon the people of Mongolia. The discoveries include descriptions, ornamental rocks and figures of men and beasts, ruined monasteries and early tombs.

In the valley of the River Tola tombs bearing images of men and animals were discovered. Other finds included vast slabs of granite and obelisks decorated with Byzantine ornaments. The discovery of the tombs is considered of great interest, as the Mongolian custom was not to bury their dead, but to expose them to be devoured by ants and birds.

An interesting result of the expedition from an artistic point of view was the finding, amid the stones and sand of the desert, of a giant fortress carved in stone. The shell is ornamented with geometrical designs of rare taste and beauty. The articles found are to be placed in the museums of Leningrad and Moscow.

CHURCHILL WILL SELL POLO PONIES

British Chancellor of Exchequer Decides to Abandon His Favorite Sport

LONDON, March 31.—Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, finds the taxes he levies on his fellow-countrymen so heavy on himself that he has decided to sell his polo ponies before the end of the year. Polo playing is Churchill's favorite recreation, but the task of drawing up Britain's £800,000 budget and struggling with the increasing expenditures of Britain's bureaucracy is so arduous that he is no longer has time to indulge in sport.

The Chancellor finds he cannot afford to pay taxes on ponies he is not using. Another job he has temporarily had to give up is that of completing the second and final book on his experiences as a Cabinet Minister during the war. He was two-thirds finished when he became Chancellor of the Exchequer, but since then has been unable to do a stroke of work on it.

Express Faith In Helicopter Airplane

TOKIO, March 31.—Invention of an airplane with a helicopter attachment which, it is hoped, will make aviation safe, has been announced by Lieutenant Commander Matsunaga, a professor at the naval college.

The new machine has sixteen wings, eight long and eight short, attached to a rotating mast. The plane is expected to rise without moving forward. On attaining the desired height, the inventor says, it can be directed horizontally in any direction by two rudders attached to the rotating pole.

Asserting that the airplane could be operated from small ground space, Matsunaga expressed the opinion that with-

The Happy Housewife

FOUR WALLS can make a house, but it takes a woman to make a home. The woman who prepares nourishing and attractive meals, attends to the thousand and one household tasks without grumbling, raises a family of healthy boys and girls, and still finds time to be a pal to her husband and a friend to her neighbors, is accomplishing the biggest job in the world. Homes like hers—little havens of peace and love—are the bulwark of the nation.

To be a successful homemaker, a woman must guard her health. When mother is not well, the house is upset. Women everywhere are learning through their own personal experiences, as Mrs. Riessinger did, the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve nervous spells, weakness and women's ailments.

Works Without Pain

Cleveland, Ohio.—"I have really had all kinds of trouble, but the worst was a nervous break-down and very irregular. After having my first baby I lost weight no matter what I did. Then a doctor told me I would be better after my next baby came. But I got worse, was always sickly and went down to 88 pounds. My neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it helped her very much, so I tried it. After taking four bottles I weigh 116 pounds and I have now gone three months without even one pain, where other times I would be laid up three days at a time. It has just done wonders for me and I can do my housework now without one bit of trouble."—Mrs. M. RIESSINGER, 10,004 Nelson Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

Nervous Spells Gone

St. Paul, Minn.—"If young women want to keep their health and strength for the next thirty years of their lives it is best to start in right now and take this medicine! I used to get nervous spells that would last a couple of days and were so bad that I was afraid to go into my house in broad daylight. I used to lock the doors and pull down the shades so that nobody could see me. One day a little booklet was left on my porch and I read it through. I found a case similar to mine. I bought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and have had fine results. The condition I was in made me a burden to my husband. Now I ask him, 'How is housekeeping?' and he says 'It is just like being in Heaven!'"—Mrs. JACK LORRETT, 704 Dellwood Place, St. Paul, Minnesota.
