The head of the house had telephoned that he would bring home a guest to luncheon—a guest whom his wife realized he would delight to honor. Preparations were made accordingly with results satisfactory to her hospitable and housewifely heart. Unfortunately, six year old Gladys came in a trifle late. Sweeping the table with an all-embracing glance, "Hum," she muttered, audibly, as she climbed into her chair, "is this lunch?" "Why, of course, it's luncheon, Gladys," said her mother, with a repressive gesture. But Gladys was not to be stayed. "Well," she replied, "make it be, but make it exactly like Sunday dinner."

Indian Lad Today High In Command of Ship of State

SENATOR CURTIS SMILES

Topeka, Kas.—On the back of an unadorned pony, galloping across the moonlit plains of an Indian reservation into the world of white men, rode the little grandson of Old Chief White Plume.
That was 50 years ago.
Today the keen-eyed youth who forsook the sleepy shadows of an Indian camp for the white lights of civilization is high in command of the U. S. ship of state.

FOUR GENERATIONS AT FAMILY REUNION

A happy family gathering was held at the summer residence of Mrs. Anna M. Baird, Lorneville, Saturday, when Mrs. Baird celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday. Mrs. Baird was a daughter of Captain James and Mrs. Ewart, who were among the earliest settlers in Lorneville. After many years of happy married life she suffered the tragic loss of her husband, Henry Baird, and their son in the South Bay mill explosion of Nov. 25, 1890. Eight lives were lost in that disaster and her husband and son were among the victims.

Those present at the reunion were her daughters, Mrs. Albert Moore and Mrs. Charles Smith, of West St. John; Mrs. Wellington Turnbull, of Montreal, and Mrs. J. J. Callahan, of Boston; and her son, Robert Baird, and Mrs. Baird, of Lorneville, besides some of the grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

AUTOMOBILE AND CAR COLLIDE; 3 HURT

An automobile driven by Ernest Marshall, and owned by his father, David Marshall, of Little River, collided with a street car at the corner of Brindley street and City Road early last evening and three occupants of the automobile were thrown out onto the pavement and injured. Mrs. Elizabeth Godwin received a slight cut near one of her eyes. A slight cut near the back of the head, and little Margaret Godwin, aged two years, was cut in the hand. Other occupants of the car, including Daniel Godwin, Irene Godwin, aged five, and Mrs. David Marshall, wife of the car owner, escaped harm. After the collision the ambulance was summoned and the injured were taken to the General Public Hospital after having received first aid at the home of Lee Livingstone in City Road. Both street car and automobile were considerably damaged. All the injured were able to proceed to their homes in Little River last evening following treatment in the hospital.
