FOUR BALLOTS WITHOUT FIXING ON A CANDIDATE

CHICAGO, June 11—The Republican national convention in a ten hour continuous session today cast four ballots in an unsuccessful effort to nominate a candidate for the presidency.

Wood, Lowden and Johnson led in the balloting, in that order, but without enough at any time to give any one of them a majority of votes.

On the fourth ballot the Wood strength had climbed up to three hundred and fourteen and a half votes, the Lowden strength two hundred and eighty-nine, and the Johnson strength stood at one hundred and forty and a half.

Herbert Hoover's maximum vote on the day's session was five votes. Nicholas Murray Butler's strength gradually drifted away, much of it going to Lowden.
Other voters were scattered among the eight of the eleven candidates who were placed in nomination.

After the second ballot, the Lowden and Wood men, feeling encouraged by their steady gains, defeated a motion to adjourn and hold the convention in session for two more ballots.

Wood's net gain after the first ballot was twenty-seven votes. Lowden's was seventy-seven and a half, and Johnson's seven. Thus the big three each had accessions to their forces during the four ballots.

Wood and Lowden were making gains when the balloting closed, Johnson on the other hand was losing ground.

Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, president of the St. John Local Council of Women, arrived in the city from her summer home at St. Andrews last night, and will remain in St. John until after the conclusion of the national council of women.
