TWENTY TWO MORE OF OUR BOYS CAME HOME THIS MORNING

Of ninety men for this district who landed from the Mauretania yesterday, only twenty-two arrived in the city this morning.

The following St. John men arrived this morning: Private B. L. Bowers, Pte. C. Chisholm, Pte. R. Devine, 253 Waterloo street, Pte. W. Ferris, 254 Brittain street, Pte. W. P. Humphrey, 166 Sydney street, Pte. H. Silliphant, 95 Middle street, Pte. W. R. Trudell, 106 Dorchester street, Sgt. Henderson, 60 Camden street, Sgt. Casman, 47 Celebra street, Sgt. Shaw, Lancaster avenue, Sgt. McGilvery, 88 Orange street, Sgt. Brittain, 137 Duke street, Cpl. Bissett, 14 Duke street, Cpl. Jones, 25 City road, Pte. Knorr, 63 Victoria street, Pte. McCutcheon, 200 Newman street, Pte. Phillips, Hickory road, Cpl. Welford, 120 Prince William street, and Spr. McEice, East St. John.

Among the men to arrive in the city last night was Sergeant Laurence Scovill, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond. He went overseas with the C. S. C., but afterwards transferred to the 26th Battalion and from there to the Y. M. C. A., where he was stationed at the 2nd divisional headquarters.

Lance-Corporal Harris Mawhinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Mawhinney of Macas Bay, arrived in the city last night from Quebec, where he landed on July 1 from the C. P. O. S. liner Minnedouche. Corporal Mawhinney crossed overseas with the 6th Siege Battery, but was later transferred to the 12th Brigade. During his long service with the Canadian expeditionary forces he escaped serious injury, but was quite badly gassed during one big engagement. He was met at the station by his father, brother and sisters and driven to the home of his brother, C. E. Mawhinney, Sydney street, where a bounteous repast had been prepared for the home-coming. Corporal Mawhinney was accompanied home by his bride, a young English girl, whom he met while overseas. The party will motor to Macas Bay this afternoon.

Among the men who came across on the Mauretania and arrived in the city this morning, was Captain R. B. Coster, son of Mrs. C. J. Coster, King Square. He enlisted with the 56th battalion and went overseas in October, 1915, with that unit. After spending a short time in England he was transferred to the 26th and served in France with that unit until the signing of the armistice when he was again transferred to the military district concentration wing, in Kinnel Park, Riby, Wales, where he was attached until he left for Canada. Captain Coster has a large circle of friends in this city and elsewhere who will be very glad to hear of his safe return.

MUCH MIXED UP OVER THE RING BATTLE

All Kinds of Arguments Over Settling Bets

ONE ROUND OR THREE?

Veterans Say the Latter—Dempsey Followed by Throg, Willard Home With Head in Ice—His Wife Glad He's no Longer Champion

Toledo, Ohio, July 5.—Through a new heavyweight champion has been crowned in Jack Dempsey, and the exodus of fight fans has depopulated Toledo today, controversy still rages over the sensational defeat of Jess Willard here late yesterday afternoon. So many unusual angles developed during the nine minutes of terrific fast bombardment that scarcely two spectators saw the scene the same. The uncertainty regarding the situation at the end of the first round when Dempsey left the ring, believing that he had won with a knockout, and the payment of such wagers as hinged on when Willard was stopped, furnished unlimited material for argument.

So weak was the sound of the gong and so great the uproar about the ring that Referee Percod failed to hear the bell and continued to count over Willard's head. Dempsey said that the referee ordered the fight to stop when he saw Dempsey's arm raised in victory. The referee notified Dempsey that he had won, and the Salt Lake City pugilist lay on his back for several minutes before his manager overtook him and told him that he was in danger of being disqualified on a technicality for leaving the ring.

Opinions of Veterans.—The question of which round Dempsey won his new title was placed before several veterans of the ring. The men who had wagers at stake and the concern was that Dempsey stopped Willard in the third round, as the latter's seconds tossed the towel of defeat into the centre of the ring before the bell rang for the beginning of the fourth round. These veterans pointed out several other interesting features. They said that it was the first time that a heavyweight champion had ever admitted defeat without leaving his chair, as well as the shortest heavyweight championship contest of modern ring history.

In other respects the first few hours after the battle were much the same as those following the passing of other titles. Dempsey's arrival in the city was met in evidence about the downtown section, followed by a wildly enthusiastic throng. When he appeared for dinner at the chief hotel the corridors were a mass of swirling spectators who pecked at his chair, as well as his manager, training and dining in a manner entirely different from the simple menus of the last two months.

At the same hour his dethroned opponent was resting in his temporary home in a residential section, with his battered head packed in ice bags, and cut off from communication with the outside world by a guard that even the telephone could not penetrate. He was examined by the boxing commission physician soon after his return to the city. The latter stated officially that Willard was not seriously injured and would be able to appear in public as soon as his manager had yielded to ordinary treatment.

Dempsey has no immediate idea of re-entering the ring, but there is one opponent in sight at this time. It is likely he will endeavor to turn his battered head into a money-making machine. It is known, however, that he is ready to defend the championship at any time and it is quite likely that a hunt will be started to find a suitable and drawing antagonist within a few months. Tex Rickard denied that he had any intention of undertaking such a venture at this time. He said: "Dempsey is sure to make a popular champion and will in time be called upon to defend his title, but there is no one in sight at present to give him battle. While he is a wonderfully built athlete, Dempsey is no bigger than scores of other men throughout the country and Europe and for that reason will be easier to match than Willard was. The new contenders must first be developed, however, and this will take time. Unless Carpentier, of France, or Beckett of England, show within the next few months that the war has not set back their boxing ability, we must wait for a new opponent to battle his way to a position where he can demand a meeting with the new champion."

The attendance at the fight yesterday was only about half what was expected. Ticket speculators lost heavily. There was little betting. Talson, O. July 5.—Jack Dempsey, the new champion, will remain in Toledo until at least Sunday night, so his manager, Jack Kearns, announced last night. "We have a dozen theatrical offers," Kearns said, "and Jack will probably open in vaudeville next week." Dempsey's first request after winning the title was that a message be sent to his mother, Mrs. Cecelia Dempsey, in Salt Lake City. "Your boy made good. Knocked the big fellow out in three rounds," the telegram read. "Willard is a game fellow," Dempsey declared. "I never handed out more punishment to any one and have him come four days."

Five Cities Report Temperature of 100 For Fourth of July

Washington, July 5.—Thermometer readings in five cities—Washington, Boston, Hartford, Philadelphia and Harrisburg, Pa.—registered 100 degrees yesterday, and weather bureau forecasters said the day was one of the hottest fourths on record. Predictions were for a high in temperature by Saturday night and very general thunder storms.

The widespread publicity that attended the city's plans to guard against further bomb outrages was believed to have been largely responsible for the quietness of the day.

Dempsey made a hurried change to his civilian clothes after his victory and was taken in an automobile to his headquarters in a downtown hotel. Hundreds of admirers greeted him as he alighted from his car at the hotel, and the lobby rang with Dempsey cheers for more than fifteen minutes.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam this morning, "how is the crop of sheep-sorrel this year?" "I never knew a year when it wasn't good," said Hiram. "And are the tender water-cress along the brook?" "Yes, some last week," said Hiram. "And the watergreens—are they looking well?" "Were some 'em better," Hiram said. "Plenty of dandelion greens to be had?" "All you want to bile, Mister." "And the blueberries are getting ripe, and that all kinds of wild fruit will be plentiful this year—raspberries, raspberries, and currants." "Yes, sir," said Hiram, "an' the clover in blossom, an' the nasturtiums, an' around hemlock an' prince's pine is there to make a tonic if you need one. What an article of food it has gone up a cent or two cents of ten cents—and I can't stand the stuff. I want to get back to nature and eat the things the Lord provides. I want to browse for the summer and pick nuts for the winter. I want a wigwam, and a cool spring of water, and a brook with fish in it."

"Well," said Hiram, "come right out to the settlement an' camp on the back of my pennecks we'll fix you up. But I don't see how they kin git along without you around here well."

"I mentioned that to my wife," said the reporter, "but she said if I wasn't in blossom, an' I am around the house a grateful staff would hire a car to take me as far as Mexico." "Poor fellow," said Hiram, "I know how it is myself."

North Adams, July 5.—Jack Lorenzo, a lion trainer with a carnival showing in this city, was attacked by an angry lion and terribly injured. He was in the cage with five of the animals. When he turned his back a minute he was pounced upon by "Emperor," the largest of the lions. His leather jacket was torn in shreds and his arms and shoulder badly lacerated.

Managing with his left arm to protect his throat, with his right hand he grasped the lion's nose and pulled it away from his face. He was then able to escape from the cage. Lorenzo's bride of a few weeks was an eyewitness. After being attended by Dr. E. Russell, Lorenzo, though badly injured, returned to the cage and put the lion through his stunts. One of the lions among the group has already killed two men. The others here will do everything well with the alrship.

Alarmist Reports Of Western Crops

There May Not be More Than 50 Per Cent Result in Alberta and Saskatchewan

Ottawa, July 5.—Most alarming reports of western crops are being received by the western members. A dry belt is moving rapidly northward and Alberta and Saskatchewan cannot hope for more than a 50 per cent crop. Manitoba has been more fortunate in weather conditions and there should be a bumper crop in that province. Many members say that conditions are as bad as in 1914, when the dominion government expended nearly $14,000,000 in relief and providing seed grain. Already requests are being received urging that the government again come to the relief of the settlers in the drought-stricken areas.

Conditions differ considerably from those that prevailed in that area in 1914. Then the majority of settlers were homesteaders and were in a sense wards of the government. Now the most of the land is patented and settlers must look for relief to their provincial administrations.

London, July 5.—Field Marshal Hindenburg, former chief of the German staff, declares that he is responsible for acts of German main headquarters since August 1916, according to a Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

The field marshal arrived in Hanover on Friday, the despatch states, and telegraphed the following message to President Ebert: "The signing of the peace treaty gives me occasion for declaring that I was responsible for the decisions and acts of main headquarters since August 1916, and also that all proclamations and orders of His Majesty, the Emperor and King, concerning the waging of warfare were issued upon my advice and upon my responsibility. I beg you, therefore, to inform the German people and the Allied governments of this declaration."

Chicago, July 5.—Jim Thorpe, Indian member of the Boston Braves, has stepped out in front among the batters of the National League, with an average of .411 in twenty-two games. Cravath of Philadelphia has .376 for fifty-two games. He has increased his mark in total bases to 115 in sixty-four hits, which included seventeen doubles, five triples and six home runs. He leads the home run listers.

Flack of Chicago has tied Olson of Brooklyn as run getter, with thirty-seven. Bigbee of Pittsburgh with nineteen stolen bases leads the base stealers and Jake Daubert of Cincinnati has taken first place among the sacrifice hitters, with sixteen.

Other leading batters include Young of New York, .361; Williams of Philadelphia, .320; Southworth of Pittsburgh, .320; and Roush of Cincinnati, .319. Pecknough of New York continues to lead the regulars in batting in the American League, although he is topped by Eddie Murphy of Chicago, who has a mark of .487 in fifteen games. Pecknough's average for fifty games is .382. He also increased his lead in runs and leads with forty-six. Bob Veach of Detroit has dropped a couple of points behind his team-mate, Cobb, who has not played for almost two weeks and is third with .356. Cobb's mark is .338.

George Staler, St. Louis, has taken the lead from Roth, recently traded to Boston by Philadelphia, for total base honors with a mark of 112, made with seventy-four hits, including eighteen doubles, four triples and four homers, made in 219 times at bat.

Ruth, Boston, bagged another homer and leads with seven. Chapman of Cleveland, still out of the game with a strained ligament, continued to lead the sacrifice hitters with twenty-two, with Viti of Boston twenty-one. Johnson of Cleveland, with seventeen stolen bases, continued to show the way to the base-stealers.

Other leading batters are: Flanagan, Detroit, .321; Staler, St. Louis, .328; Milan, Washington, .320, and Jackson, Chicago, .320.

Halifax, N. S., July 5.—The annual convention of the Canadian Bar Association will take place in Winnipeg August 27-29.
