Arrested at Rossland, it Being Alleged That he Ordered Burning of River Steamers at Dawson.

Joseph Genelle has been arrested at Rossland and is now in the custody of the provincial police. He is charged with days ago. His arrest was the result of a confession made by McMillan, the watchman, who, as detziled in the Times, was arrested shortly after the arning and charged with arson. Millan after telling many stories, at last intimated that he had been ordered to destroy the steamers in order that the

INTERESTING REPORTS.

WITH SERIOUS CRIME The Hospital for Insane and Freight Rates on Farm Products.

"The hospital for the insane" would ordinarily be considered a rather sombre and dry subject, but Dr. Manchester, the medical superintendent, in his annual report, has avoided the rut which is generally travelled in the preparation of official reports and has presented a clear and interesting historical sketch of the institution from the time a young Scotch immigrant became deranged in 1850 until the present day. In the preparation of this history Dr. Mauchester acknowlhaving procured the burnia; of the river steamer Glenora, which, with the Mona, was destroyed by fire at Dawson a few received from Drs. J. S. Helmcken and I. W. Powell, Victoria.

Dr. Manchester also deals with the work done in the institution during the year. There were more patients admir ted than in any previous year. There were admitted during 1901, 89 male and more than in 1900. Of these 102 has either a common or superior education 25 were born in England, 20 in United ing distributed generally. Four Japs and four Chinese were admitted, and the fact s pointed out that not one native Brit ish Columbian, either white or red, was admitted.
