LET IT BURN

DEADWOOD, S. D., April 17—The fire in the Homestead mine, which has been raging for two weeks, was reported yesterday as being beyond control. The ground around the mine is now so heated that it is almost impossible for men to go near enough to fight the flames.

THE WEATHER

Forecasts — Southwest and west winds, showery, Thursday, strong west and northwest winds, colder with local showers. Synopsis—The disturbance is now centred in Maine but from present indications will not prove very important. Weather continues very cold in the western provinces. To Banks and American ports, strong winds and moderate gales from west and northwest tonight and Thursday. Sable Island, west wind, 10 miles, fair. Highest temperature during last 24 hours, 47. Lowest temperature during last 24 hours, 34. Temperature at noon, 47.

LOCAL NEWS.

The steamer Mimac sailed this morning for West Bay, where she will load deals for west coast of England.

The police removed a large advertising sign from the side of King Square last night.

Dr. J. V. Anglin will address the St. John Medical Society this evening on "Historical Insanity." No cards have been issued for this meeting, but this notice can be considered official.

A water pipe burst on Horsfield street last night and the residents on the street had to do without the service for the morning while repairs were made.

The small boys celebrated the aldermanic victories last night with bonfires. The police found it necessary to put out fires on Horsfield, Charlott, Duke streets and Elliott Row.

A horse driven by Richard Magee ran away on Main street yesterday, the carriage collided with another team and Mr. Magee was thrown out on the street but fortunately was unharmed. The carriage was broken.

FLY THE FLAG.

American Visitor Surprised at the Bare Flag Poles in the City—Very Different in the United States.

To Editor of the Star: Sir: Having been absent from St. John for a number of years, travelling through the United States and Upper Canada, I was dumfounded at the number of bare flag poles erected on your squares and public buildings, without the slightest resemblance of patriotism to denote under which flag I am present, or why I was invited to seek for succor in case of need. On the beautiful custom house structure, of which St. John should be proud, there stand three flag poles—without the flag of Britain or Canada—and on the opposite side of the street (over the American consulate office) there was "Old Glory" the Stars and Stripes flapping with the breeze. Travelling over your city I find your public squares, school-houses and city buildings destitute of this loyal patriotism of which your people should be proud. Why, there is not a railroad station, square, school-house, hotel, public building, theatre, etc., etc., in the cities of the United States but Old Glory is flung to the breeze, and it is the boast and pride of Americans to salute their flag on all occasions. There seems to be a disposition, I understand, to display the Canadian flag from the schoolhouses of the city in the near future. Why not make it compulsory to display the Canadian flag from all public buildings and squares in and around St. John, and the love of "home and God and native land" will be more deeply impressed on your young and rising generation. Sincerely yours, etc., TRAVELLER.

WEDDINGS.

At four o'clock this afternoon, an event of special interest in social circles takes place when Miss Ella M. Macaulay, daughter of Mr. Alexander Macaulay, of Macaulay Bros. & Co., will be united in marriage to Dr. Ernest R. Sewell. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride and will be performed by Rev. David Lang, in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride's costume is of white lace over satin, with tulle veil. Miss Eunice Macaulay will be the bridesmaid and Mr. Fayette Gates will support the groom. Miss Macaulay is one of St. John's most popular young ladies. Dr. Sewell, who is a native of Gibson, N. B., is also very well known and the best wishes of a large host of friends will go out to the newly married couple. Dr. and Mrs. Sewell will leave this evening for New York. On their return they will reside at 135 Charlotte street.

ROBERTSON-STURDEE. A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at six o'clock this morning in Trinity Church, when Miss Gertrude A. K. Sturdee, daughter of the late High Sheriff Lawrence Sturdee, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles S. E. Robertson, secretary of the W. F. Hatheway Co., and son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Robertson, Pitt street. Bishop Richardson officiated, assisted by Rev. R. Heyington Jones.

The bride was attired in a travelling suit of blue broadcloth with hat to match. Miss C. Sturdee was bridesmaid and Mr. B. E. Church was groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson left on a wedding trip to Boston. On their return they will reside on Mecklenburg street. Among the many presents received were: silver candelabra from the choir of Trinity Church of which the bride has been the leading soprano; a handsome silver scallop dish from the Young Men's Association of Trinity Church; cut glass tumblers, water pitcher and cracked ice bowl from the employees of W. F. Hatheway & Co., and a case of cutlery from the firm of W. F. Hatheway & Co.

Bringing Upwards of Two Thousand Immigrants—Scarlet Fever Patients Detained.

The C. P. R. steamer Mount Temple from Antwerp, arrived in port about 1.30 o'clock this afternoon and docked at Sand Point. The steamer brought out 2033 steerage passengers. Dr. Scammell, quarantine officer, boarded the steamer at the Island and removed one family to the Island on account of scarlet fever.

TO MAKE A NEW HOME IN A HEATHEN LAND

Farwell Reception Tendered Mr. and Mrs. Ewen G. McAfee, Who go to the New Hebrides.

The farwell reception in St. John's Presbyterian church last evening to Mrs. and Mr. Ewen G. McAfee, who leaves on Thursday next, by the C. P. R. for their distant field of labor, was well attended. Rev. Dr. Fotheringham, pastor of the church, presided. After devotional exercises, addresses were delivered. Rev. A. A. Graham spoke as representing sister churches and particularly St. David's. Mr. J. W. Parks expressed the feelings of the congregation. Mr. C. H. Dolg, superintendent, voiced the sentiments of St. John's fellow teachers. Mr. D. McLean expressed the happiness which the Y. P. S. C. E. felt at the prospect of having two of its number at work among the heathen, and Mr. Geo. W. Irvine, speaking for the young men, dwelt upon the bright side of a missionary's life. During the evening a male quartette rendered appropriate selections and Rev. L. A. and Mrs. McLean sang a Scotch duet. At the close of the addresses, the chairman presented Mr. McAfee with a well-filled purse in the name of the congregation, the contents of which were intended to assist him and Mrs. McAfee in setting up a Christian home amongst the barbarous islanders. Mr. McAfee made a suitable reply. Mrs. McAfee was then presented with a handsome bouquet of carnations from the Accot Mission and Rev. Dr. Fotheringham. Refreshments were then served and the pleasant evening was closed by singing "All Hail The Power of Jesus Name."

It is interesting to notice that Mrs. McAfee, formerly Miss Morrison, is a grandchild of Rev. Donald Morrison, who went out as a missionary to the New Hebrides along with Rev. Mr. Gordon, who had volunteered to take the place of his martyred brother, and who himself in a short time fell a victim to native treachery. Mr. Morrison settled on the Island of Zébo, but his health failing he retired to New Zealand, where he died. Mr. and Mrs. McAfee will locate on the Island of Santo and will work in connection with Rev. Dr. Annand.

WENT TO SLEEP AND A GRUM STOLE HIS MONEY

So Robert Tait Got Free Lodgings in a Box Car, Was Arrested, and Then Set Free.

Despite the fact that the bars were closed yesterday there were three prisoners in the police court this morning to face Magistrate Ritchie. Two were drunks, one of them, John Curran, an old offender, who was sent to jail for two months. Curran was quite ill this morning and had to be assisted from the cell to the court house. Robert Tait was charged with lying and lurking in a box car in the I. C. R. yard. Tait explained that when he boarded the train at Moncton yesterday he had $4.25 in his pocket, and he was in company with a chum, who was en route to Houlton, Me. Tait says he fell asleep on the train and his chum stole his money. Having no money nor a place to put up for the night he went into the box car to sleep. He said he was in search of work in one of the saw mills. He was given a warning not to sleep out at nights and was handed over to the care of Adjutant Bowering of the Salvation Army.

CORRECTION.

The Star desires to make amends for an unfortunate error that occurred in yesterday's election report. In referring to George Green, the Stanley ward candidate, it was stated he had received a letter "from Ald. McGoldrick" offering him a clear field next year if he (Green) withdrew this year from the contest. The paragraph should have read that he received a letter, but not from "Alderman McGoldrick" himself; evidently some friend of the Stanley ward representative. The reporter's copy was written this way, but in the rush of editions the printer's version made the case quite different. This correction is made voluntarily in justice to both Mr. Green and Alderman McGoldrick, who are as good friends as ever.

HE WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT MCGOLDRICK

Among those who felt the interest in yesterday's election was James Lowell, M. P. F., for years one of the councillors for the parish of Lancaster. Shortly after six o'clock when the returns were all in, the Star's telephone rang. "It's Lowell speaking; how's McGoldrick?" was the query. The desired information was given along with the remainder of the returns, and the Star learned that Mr. Lowell, at the other end of the wire, was in the central exchange at New Glasgow, N. S. He could not wait for the papers to convey the results of the contest. Mr. Lowell is in Pictou County having a look at the roads, with a view to securing pointers for similar works in New Brunswick.

The funeral of the late Archibald C. L. Tapley was largely attended this afternoon. It took place from his late residence, Holly street, at 2.30 o'clock. Revs. R. P. McKim and Richard Mathers officiated and interment was in Fernhill.
