P. E. I. TRAGEDY.

Archibald McLeod Accused of Murdering His Mother.

His Arrest Promptly Followed—Evidence Brought Out at Coroner's Inquiry.

According to Expert Medical Testimony Mrs. McLeod Came to Her Death by Violence—A Synopsis of the Story.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., May 3.—Archibald McLeod is under arrest charged with the murder of his mother, Isabella McLeod, at Rose Valley. The arrest was made last night at McLeod's home. He was brought to Charlottetown this morning...

Edith McLeod, wife of Archibald McLeod, testified that her husband arose at midnight to see a cow. Some hours afterwards he came to his room and told her his mother was dead. She went down stairs, but could not tell if there were any marks on the face of the deceased.

Several other witnesses gave evidence to the effect that they had seen the deceased shortly after her death and had noticed marks about her face and neck. Malcolm McKenzie and Charles S. McDonald testified to having heard screaming from 9 and 10 o'clock on the evening of April 19th. McKenzie's house is about 20 chains from McLeod's. McLeod was about 40 chains away from McLeod's house when he heard the noise. The scream appeared to come from the direction of McLeod's house, as if from the field in front of the house. The voice was like a female voice. It lasted a few seconds. It was a long, low, loud at first and then gradually died away.

After a short deliberation the jury returned the following verdict: "That the late Isabella McLeod came to her death either by choking or strangulation." The family of which Archibald McLeod is a member is a clever and respected one. He has seven brothers. R. D. McLeod is vice-president of the Whitney Glass Works, New York, at a salary of $10,000, with offices in all the states of the union. M. J. McLeod runs one of the most prosperous dry goods stores in Moosejaw, N. W. T. A. E. McLeod, who conducted a large dry goods store and tailoring establishment in Parrsboro, N. S., is now retired and is a member of the school board.

Relief for Jacksonville. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 5.—The hunger of ten thousand homeless people was satisfied today upon the arrival of relief trains and boats bringing provisions from neighboring towns. Early this morning a commissary was established in the center of the city and thousands were fed during the day. The relief fund is growing hourly and every mail brings offers of assistance.

Today an order was promulgated under martial law, requiring all merchants whose stores were opened, by the configuration, to open their doors and sell to all who asked.

The streets have been crowded all day with shoppers who lost all in the fire, and many stores remain open all night.

It is estimated that 3,000 people have left the city and every outgoing train is crowded with refugees. Five carloads of tents were received today, the property of the state, which are to be used by the homeless temporarily. Another shipment of tents is expected from the government to arrive tomorrow.

Tomorrow morning the Times-Union will estimate the total property loss at eleven million dollars. These figures are based upon an itemized statement furnished by a volunteer committee of citizens. Rumors of loss of life are on every hand tonight and the river has been closely watched today. Many persons have confirmed the report of loss of life at the Market street wharf. Numerous advertisements appear in the local papers asking for aid in searching for persons who are missing. As many have left for the Gulf, it is possible to ascertain who have been lost in the Market street pier tragedy.

A committee of Atlantians were here today to deliver $1,000 worth of provisions, promising another car during the week past. Atlanta also furnished by express one thousand feet of hose.

Martial law is being rigidly enforced and the town is quiet tonight, although much anxiety prevails because of the rumors said to have been made by the negroes, that they would obtain provisions by force at their first opportunity.

In the eastern portion of the city the debris is still burning, but no further outbreak of the flames is anticipated.

FIRE DESTROYS ASHLAND MILL.

Big Aroostook Sawing Plant Burned on Friday Night.

It May Not Be Rebuilt—Ruin Came Just at the Commencement of Busy Season—Millions of Logs on Hand—Stockholders Meet.

(Bangor Commercial.) The mill of the Ashland Mfg. Co., located two miles from the town of Ashland, in Aroostook county, was burned on Friday night; no full report of the amount of damage has been received, but a message from Supt. R. H. Pomroy to Pearl & Dennett, one of the insurance agencies in which policies were placed, says that the power house, boilers and engines are not damaged. The loss is estimated to be in the neighborhood of $100,000. The plant was well insured in various agencies by Wm. H. Brewster, a Boston insurance broker, who placed the policies. It is not known whether the mill will be rebuilt.

The Ashland mill, one of the most modern and best equipped in Maine, was built in 1897, at a cost of about $200,000, by a company of capitalists, including a number of Bangor men, and was built under the supervision of Waldo P. Lowell of this city, one of the prominent lumbermen of this vicinity, a member of the firm of W. T. Pearson & Co.; and later the senior partner of W. P. Lowell & Co.

Upon the completion of the plant, Mr. Lowell became the manager and continued in the position until arrangements were made with Stetson, Cutler & Co. of Bangor, St. John and Boston, to handle the output.

The plant's equipment included two hand saws, two saw machines, clasp-bands and planers, besides numerous other pieces of apparatus. The mill was fitted with automatic sprinklers, which made it possible for the owners to carry a good insurance. The annual output of the plant was about 30,000,000 feet.

Sawing was commenced at the mill in March, but after a few days the plant was shut down until late yesterday morning, when operations were resumed. About 25,000,000 feet of logs were on hand, enough to keep the mill running for a year, and sufficient orders had already been received to keep the plant busy throughout the entire season.

The logs were cut last winter and were driven down the Aroostook and St. John rivers to the mill. It was not so difficult to get the logs down the St. John over the falls, they might be used in the St. John market, but all of them are of full length and it would be a hard job to drive them.

EMPLOYED BIG CREWS. At the Ashland mill the company employed 370 men, and also had a crew of 25 or 30 stevedores at its wharves in this city. The output of the mill was shipped by rail from Ashland, over the Bangor & Aroostook railroad, either to Boston or New York direct, or to this city, when it was transferred from the cars to vessels at the company's wharves at City Point.

IF the mill is not rebuilt it will be a heavy blow to the lumber industry in this section of the state, and to the shipping business in Bangor. The Bangor & Aroostook railroad will also suffer, as the transportation of the company's lumber output has been a big item in its freight business.

PRES. BURPEE TALKS. B. R. Burpee, of this city, president of the Ashland Mfg. Co., when seen by a Commercial reporter on Saturday forenoon, said that no particulars of the fire had been received and no correct estimate of the loss could be given.

holders, which will probably be held here on Sunday night. Mr. Burpee expressed himself as being doubtful if the mill would be rebuilt on account of the high price of stumps in that section.

THE INSURANCE. It was impossible to obtain a statement in regard to the insurance of the property owing to the fact that it was placed through the Boston broker. The following Bangor agencies have policies:

Blake, Barrows & Brown, $24,000; W. W. Palmer, $10,500; Pearl & Dennett, $5,000. Besides this, J. W. McClure has a $15,000 policy of use and occupancy insurance.

The insurance in the Bangor agencies is distributed as follows: The policies in the Blake, Barrows & Brown agency were placed as follows: Union of London, $2,000; Queen of America, $1,000; Royal of England, $1,000; Norwich Union of England, $5,000; Lancashire of England, $2,000; London Lancashire of England, $5,000; Commercial Union of England, $5,000; Astoria of Hartford, $5,000; total, $24,000.

W. W. Palmer, Orient, $5,000; Hanover, $3,000; State of Pennsylvania, $2,500; total, $10,500. Pearl & Dennett, Northern Insurance Co., $5,000. W. McClure, $15,000, use and occupancy.

THE COMPANY. The Ashland Mfg. Co. is capitalized at $300,000. The stockholders are as follows: Gen. George Varney, Charles Lovell, F. A. Wilson, E. R. Burpee, Stetson, Cutler & Co., E. L. Stetson, Melvin C. Pierce, Hayward Stetson, Storer W. Thaxter, Julius Waterman, and Stetson, Cutler & Redmond. The officers are: President, E. R. Burpee; treasurer, Fred E. Cutler of Boston; secretary, E. R. Burpee, F. E. Cutler, Frank Stetson, of St. John, Gen. George W. Varney, Charles V. Lord and Edward Stetson.

TEMPERANCE NUGGETS.

By William G. Haesebarth.

The weakness of the weak is strengthened by the strength of the strong. There is a mighty power in human sympathy. That is one strong argument why all Christians should be open and avowed total abstainers from all forms of intoxicating drinks. It gives new strength and hope to the poor drunkard who may be trying to abstain. The spirit de comp, as we call it, of the total abstainer goes very far to hold each other up. Do you say, Christian brother, "What is the drunkard to me, that I should abstain simply because of him?" Remember what the "next murderer" asked—"Am I my brother's keeper?" Will you put yourself in the same category with him? The drunkard is your neighbor; the drunkard is your brother man, wearing the nature which Christ dignified with His incarnation, and the value of which Christ paid in the precious drops of His own priceless blood. Will you dare say, then, "What is the drunkard to me, that I should do anything for him?" You stand before the cross of the Lord Jesus Christ, and you say, and you think you mean it, too, "What shall I render unto thee for all thy benefits toward me?" And the Lord says, "There is a poor drunkard. Help him, and that will be thanking me." And you won't help him even in the giving up of your glass; that he may thereby be encouraged and strengthened through your example. It won't do, Christian brother; it won't do. To do away with the ghastly curse of intemperance, to wipe this fretting plague spot from our national life, to save another generation from the burden, the shame and the ruin which this one vice has inflicted upon our land, is the task which we of this generation have to do. No work that any nation ever had to do can be more immediately and overwhelmingly important.

DR. CUYLER ON TEMPERANCE.

Dr. Cuyler writes in regard to the future of the temperance movement for the new century: "It will depend, in my humble judgment, on the following methods and measures: (1) unless people are educated and influenced not to use intoxicants, all legal attempts to prohibit their sale can achieve only a very limited success. (2) Pupils, parents and schools (Sunday and secular) must do most of this educating. (3) The Church of Christ must fight the drink evil (which often means the damnation of souls) just as it fights theft, profanity and adultery. (4) The license system, a clumsy attempt to regulate a public mischief, ought to be abolished altogether. (5) Corporations and all employers ought to require abstinence from intoxicants as essential to secure employment. (6) "Coffee taverns" and other social resorts where ardent spirits are excluded are available antidotes to the rum saloons among the laboring classes. (7) Every State should give to every town the right to close up, by popular vote, every drinking haunt within its borders. In the twentieth century works these seven laws. It will give us a healthy life to the temperance reform." In this connection we may add that the "coffee taverns" have been a successful experiment in this city, and from the last reports, they ought to be upon a good paying basis. It is only when they can be thus made to pay that a permanent success is insured, and in every city there is now the same opportunity for this as in New York.

She then began to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and found it excellent in restoring her to health and strength. She is now greatly improved and at work again. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

ONE PILL A DOSE, 25c A BOX. Mr. Alex. Marshall, 56 Essex Street, Toronto, Ont., says: "Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are a splendid medicine and certainly all that is claimed for them. Both myself and wife have been greatly benefited by their use. I had kidney disease and pains in the back for over two years, and at times the pains were so acute that I was totally unfit for work. Among the remedies I tried were English pills supposed to be good, but they did not fit my case. I heard Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills highly praised, and used them. I now feel like a new man. The pains and aches have entirely disappeared and I can now work with comfort. My wife is much improved in health and we both endorse Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills most heartily."

Dr. Chase's Ointment HAS NEVER FAILED TO CURE PILES.

Rev. S. A. Dugan, Methodist Minister, Cansco, Prince Edward County, Ont., states: "I was troubled with itching and bleeding piles for years, and they ultimately attained to a very violent form. Large lumps or abscesses formed so that I was with great difficulty and considerable pain that I was able to stool. At this severe crisis I purchased a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but I had little or no faith in it, as I had tried various remedies before and to no purpose. Now, imagine how great and joyous was my surprise to find that just the one box cured me, so that the lumps disappeared and also the external swelling. I feel like a different man to-day and have not the least doubt that Dr. Chase's Ointment saved me from a very dangerous and painful operation and many years of suffering. It is with the greatest pleasure and with a thankful heart that I give this testimonial, knowing that Dr. Chase's Ointment has done so much for me. You are at perfect liberty to use this testimonial as you see fit for the benefit of others similarly afflicted."
