St. John—South End.

An event of much interest took place Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Butcher, Queen street. Frank S. Merritt was married to Miss Jennie Butcher, Rev. Job Shenton performing the ceremony. The house had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, one of the most interesting features being a large wedding bell of flowers. Under this the bride was joined by the groom and the ceremony performed. The bride wore a lovely dress of cream cloth trimmed with cream ruffling and gold trim. She carried a bouquet of cream roses, lily of the valley and maiden hair fern. She was attended by Miss Nellie Palmer of Dorchester and Miss Alice Butcher, who wore yellow French crepe, trimmed with chiton lace to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Howard Wetmore. After the ceremony the newly married couple drove to the Dufferin hotel and took Thursday morning's train for Halifax on their bridal tour. Many handsome presents were received including the following:

The Misses Peters, silver bonbonniere.
Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Butcher, pair Dresden ornaments.

One of the quietest June weddings was that by which Miss Annie J. McLeod, eldest daughter of Mr. McLeod and Mrs. McLeod, of the Chamberlain's office were united in marriage. The marriage was celebrated at Mr. McLeod's residence, 17 Coburg street, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dr. McLeod, of Fredericton, uncle of the bride. The bride was attended in a traveling costume of lawn cloth, and was attended by Miss M. Willet, sister of the groom, and little Mary E. McLeod as maid of honor, who carried a lovely basket of roses. Mr. Robert Reid ably supported the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Willet left by the night express for Boston and New York. When they return they will reside on King street (East). The number of handsome presents received showed the popularity of the young couple. The groom's present to the bride was a diamond bracelet.
Rev. J. M. Campbell performed one of the many interesting ceremonies of Wednesday evening in marriage Mr. Chas. E. Jackson and Miss Rebecca Phillips. The bride wore a pretty dress of grey cloth with hat to match. Miss Fannie Ross was bridesmaid, and wore a grey cloth costume, and as maid of honor, Miss Hand Hetherington, China silk, with cream lace. Mr. M. McRobbie
