Gallant Nova Scotian, With One Finger G Makes Possible Capture of 250 Yard Trenches - Story Reads Like Fiction Brother Wounded in Same Battle

very first one out a poles of throught for the product of the bounds of the product of the produ

New London, Conn., Nov. 3—The German armored submarine U-57, a sister ship of the U-53, which recently sank five vessels off the New England coast, is expected to act as a convoy for the undersea freighter Deutschland on her return trip to Germany, according to a statement tonight by Captain Paul menig.

The Deutschland's skipper added: "I would not be surprised if the armored abmarine appeared off this coast while I am in port. You can't tell what the overnment will do,"

Takely said he probably would make his

In answer to questions, Captain Koenig said he probably would make his homeward dash within the next ten days. He denied a report that he would go through the Cape Cod Canal, saying nothing was to be gained by this south

BUT DECREASING SINCE AUG.

Total Fallen in Somme Offensive, 414,202, Bringing Total Above 1,200,000-October Average, 3,452 a day, or Nearly 1,000 Less Than August-22,859, Including 1,487 Officers, Killed in Action Last Month

London, Oct. 31.—British casualties reported in October in all war areas were Officers, 4,331; men, 102,702.

October losses of 107,033 bring up the total British casualties for the months of the Somme offensive to 414,202. The daily average loss for October 5,452.

months of the Somme offensive to 414,202. The daily average loss for October 15 3,152.

So far as is shown by the London figures, the losses of the British have been decreasing since August. The total reported for September was 119,549, or a daily average of more than 3,800.

In August the total was 127,945, a daily average of 4,127.

22,859 KILLED DURING MONTH.

New York, Oct. 31—A news agency despatch from London, published here today, is an follows:

"British killed, wounded and missing during the past month numbered 108,255, according to the official capualty list announced this morning. Of this total 22,859, including 1,487 officers and 21,372 men, were killed. Of 76,684 wounded, 2,858 were officers and 73,626 were men. Of 8,710 missing, 439 were officers and 8,773 were men."

Total British casualties during the war have passed the 1,200,000 mark.

October Recruiting Poorest Yet

Ottawa, Nov. 5—Canada's recruiting the 6,000 mark, or 5,999. It is the lower began, and is 358 below the September total number of casualities for October venustments.

onia to W. C. Italy, pig mon, p. t. November.

Dan stmr Niels R. Finsen, 1,138 tons, Gulf to Havre or W. C. Italy, general largo, p. t. November.

Br stmr Uganda, 2,361 tons, Baltimore to France, flour, p. t. November.

Schr Jacob M. Haskell, 1,865 tons, Boston to Secundi, general cargo, $110,000 and back, W. C. Africa to New York, mahogulty, p. t.

Br schr M. J. Taylor, 377 toms, Gulfport to Las Palmas, two trips, lumber, $30.

port to Las Palmas, two trips, lumber, 430.

Br stmr Kirkwall, 3.047 tons (previously), Baltimore or Virgina to Chili, coal, 35s. November.

Br stmr Asuncion de Larrinagn, 2.693 tons (previously), Virginia to Bahia Blanca, coal, 45s. November.

Schr Horace A Stone, 1.287 tons, Portland to Barbados, cooperage, pt.

"What is your thead clerk wirking on—some abstruse themical proviem?"

You might say so, "How trying to compound a red, while and the drink for the soda fountain." Ressas City Journal.