

	PAGE		PAGE
Expiring laws, commencement of acts for continuing	189n	Habeas Corpus, whether it may be allowed to a prisoner for contempt,	38
Extent of Privilege of the House of Lords	30-31 disobeying writ of, not privileged,	36
..... House of Commons	40	Hakewill quoted.	63
Extraordinary expenses of Government	293	Hale, Lord, quoted.	334
Fees on Private Bills, in the House of Lords	254-5	Honour, where Lords may give evidence on, instead of oath	20
..... in the House of Commons	256-59	House of Assembly, Members of, accepting certain offices, must vacate their seats.	86n
..... paid before the 2d. reading	208	House to be acquainted with arrest of its Members.	37
..... formerly paid by Members elected on vacancies	93n order that should be observed by in attending public solemnities	150
..... payable to Examiners of Election Recognizances.	109 adjourns, see Adjournment .
..... on taxation of Costs of Election Petitions	119n cleared before a division.	129
..... to be collected by Parliamentary Agents.	260-1	House of Commons, use and purposes of	42
Fee-fund of the House of Commons	323 extent of its authority.	ib.
Felons may not vote at Elections	78 and privilege.	31, 43
..... or be Members	81 have often attempted to give their resolutions the force of law.	48
Felony, privilege from arrest does not extend to	22, 36 origin of.	77n 261n
Filing a Bill against a Peer, without process, no breach of privilege	29 places of members in.	93
..... in cases where Witnesses are to be examined, no breach of privilege.	ib. Speaker of, see Speaker .
Filling up blanks, rules in	143, 179, 269 morning sittings of, to receive petitions, and transact private business.	284
Finch, Sir Heneage, first Attorney General who sat in House of Commons.	28 committee of the whole.	287
Foreign titles not to be received by British subjects, without consent of Sovereign	68 its proceedings reflected on by individuals.	56
Forms of proceeding should be strictly observed	151 call of, see Call of the House .
Fortescue quoted.	17 privilege of one violated by the other.	312
Franking, Lords' privilege as to	23	House of Lords have often attempted to give their resolutions the force of law.	48
..... Commons' privilege as to	33-4 Speaker of, see Speaker .
..... its origin	34 see Lords .
..... in the Canadian Legislature.	33n	Householders, voting at Elections.	75
Fraudulent voting at Elections.	75	Housekeeper of Commons.	327
Free Conferences	301	Houses, proceedings between the two.	311
Freedom from arrest. See Arrest freedom from when they first assembled apart.	320n
..... of Speech, Lords' privilege as to	28 messages between the two.	306
..... Commons' privilege as to	56	Houses of Peers, not to be entered by officers of Justice without a special warrant.	23
..... See Privileges .		Impeachment, object and propriety of.	329
Gaming-houses, privilege from arrest does not extend to prosecutions for keeping.	36 manner of conducting.	330 35
Garret-King-at-Arms prepares Roll of Peers.	128 not extinguished by dissolution, &c. of Parliament	335
Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.	319 last instances of.	ib.
..... see Black Rod .		Imprisoning a Member.	99
..... Yeoman Usher of	319	Inclosure Bills, special proofs required to be given before Committees on	214-15
Governor, Message from	305	Indictable Offences, privilege from arrest does not extend to.	36
Governor's assent to a bill not final	186	Infamous persons may not sit in House of Commons.	83
Grace, Bills of.	274	Informal Messages	310
Grand Committees	290 Petitions	277
Great Seal, pardon under, not pleadable in an Impeachment	335	Ingrossments, Examiners of.	253
..... placed before Lord Chancellor in House of Peers.	70 of Private Bills.	286
Grievances, Standing Committee of	286	Inserting words by amendment	237
		Instruction to Committees on Bills.	171
	 to Members to prepare Private Bills.	205
		Irish Prelates in House of Lords.	64
	 Peerage limited.	67