WOLFESTOWN.

The tract in the district of Three Rivers, bounded north-east by Ireland, south-east by Garthby, south-west by Ham, and north-west by Chester and Halifax, was erected into a township named Wolfestown, and in part granted August 14th, 1802, to Nicholas Montour and his associates, viz., William Walsh, John Murphy, Luke Gaul, Pierce Kief, Mathew Reagan, Dennis Daly, Michael Broderick, and Timothy Lynch.

This township is the most northern in Wolfe County, or in the district of St. Francis. The nearest railway station is at Somerset on the Quebec road, twenty-two miles distant; from which, a weekly mail is brought here. A French church, stores, mills, &c., go to make up the settlement. In 1866, the sum of $597.21, was levied for schools; the government grant being $140.18.

Parts of this township are said to contain excellent agricultural land. It is an independent municipality as regards the management of its internal affairs, with
