

shall not be discharged from Quarantine until the money expended in victualling such passengers, be reimbursed to the commanding Officer by the said owner or by some person for him.

XLIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every person offending against the Rules and Regulations concerning Quarantine herein made, or to be hereafter made, under the authority of the Act, and who shall for such offence have been confined in Prison at Grosse Isle, shall be in like manner victualled during the time of his imprisonment in the manner aforesaid at the cost of the owner of the vessel, to which such person shall belong or shall be passenger, & such vessel shall not be released from Quarantine until such cost shall be reimbursed as aforesaid.

XLIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Pilot who shall be detained in Quarantine, shall be entitled to twenty shillings for each day during which he shall be so detained, over and above the sum due to him for pilotage, and such allowance shall be paid him by the persons who shall be bound to pay such Pilotage.

XLV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Master of a Vessel coming from Sea, and upward bound, who shall permit any person being a Passenger therein, or being one of the Crew thereof, to land below Grosse Isle, or to have any communication with the shore, shall incur a penalty not exceeding                      pounds, currency, for every person, and shall be imprisoned until such fine be paid.

XLVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Pilot who shall refuse or neglect to fulfil any duty imposed on him by this Act, shall for every act of such negligence or refusal incur a penalty not exceeding                      pounds, currency, and lose his Branch.

XLVII.