

- Catholics have free exercise of their religion according to instructions to Carleton (1775), 602; Catholic citizens request that their bishops may be allowed to bring priests from Europe to carry on the work of the seminaries and missions, 762, 765; provision for clergy, 1043.
- Religious Communities, not to be molested, 17, 32; sketch of, 67-71; Murray directed to make report on Catholic institutions, 191 (see pp. 311, 386); proposal to make laws for the reform or abolition of, 388; remarks on establishment and state of, 427-430; Carleton desires to exercise his own discretion in dealing with, note 1, p. 568; referred to, note 1, p. 594; regulations in Carleton's Instructions concerning, 604, 824.
- Report, of Murray on government of Quebec, 47; of Burton on government of Trois Rivières, 81; of Gage on government of Montreal, 91; of Lords of Trade on provision for establishing a government at Quebec, 132; re Indian Lands, 151; on commissions for governors by Committee of Privy Council, 159; of Attorney and Solicitor General re civil status of Roman Catholics in countries ceded to Britain by Treaty of Paris, 236; of Board of Trade on Murray's ordinances and constitutions of Attorney and Solicitor General re civil government of Quebec, 251 (see p. 342); on administration of justice, required by Privy Council, 286; referred to, 392; of Maseres on administration of government, 327; Maseres' criticism of Carleton's report on laws of Quebec, 370; of Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations relative to the state of the Province of Quebec, 377; list of documents which served as a basis of, 393; of committee of council on administration of law by justices of the peace, 395; of Wedderburn, setting forth defects in mode of government and suggesting plan of civil and criminal law, 424; source of text in this volume, note 1, p. 424; note 1, p. 437; of Thurlow on administration of government with abstract propositions for improvement, 437; of the committee of council relating to courts of justice, 874; of the committee of council upon population, agriculture, and the settlement of Crown lands, 937.
- Representative government, proposed by Board of Trade, 247.
- Request, Courts of, plan for the establishment and regulation of, note 2, p. 850; private disputes to be settled by the commissioners note 2, p. 850.
- Reserves, clause in Haldimand's Instructions providing for reserves of land for educational and religious purposes, 731.
- Revenue, proposal to create revenue by taxation, 248; duties proposed on liquors, for revenue, 264; proposals to levy taxes, 265, 266; insufficient provision made for, 381; remarks by Marriott on proposed bill for raising and collecting taxes, 479; clause in act allowing liquors to be imported into parts of Quebec, 581.
- Revenue Act. See Quebec Revenue Act.
- Reynal, Abbé, Marriott refers to legal works of, 456, 478.
- Rice, George, member of Board of Trade, references to, 132, 147, 150, 153.
- Ridley, Sir Matthew White, speaks in favour of Constitutional Act, note 1, p. 955.
- Rigaud, M. de, Governor of Montreal, 11, 27.
- Roberts, John, member of Board of Trade, 393.
- Robin, Pipon & Co., grant of land on Baie de Chaleur, made to, 734.
- Robinson, Thomas, member of Board of Trade, 393.
- Roman Catholics, inhabitants to give account of arms and ammunition in their possession, 191, 311; given right to act as jurors, 206 (see pp. 214, 218); report of Attorney and Solicitor General re civil status of, 236; Board of Trade sees no reason for their exclusion from practice in the courts, 241; summary of Attorney General Yorke's opinion re rights of Roman Catholics (according to British law) to sit in House of Assembly, note 1, p. 266; members of Council should not be required to take certain declaration, 383; members of Assembly should not be required to take certain declarations, 384; address to the King from, 762, 765; Lieutenant Governor Hope suggests that there be more than six Catholic members of the legislative council, 795. See also Religion.
- Ross, Major, bearer of petition to the King from Canadians disapproving an assembly, 795.
- Rosslyn, Earl of. See Dartmouth.
- Royal Courts of Judicature, suggested by Maseres, 355, 373.
- Rules of Practice, Provincial Court of Appeals to have authority to establish, 851.
- Russell, Francis, surgeon in hospital at Quebec, 48.
- Salaries and allowances of office under government, to be regulated by Governor in Council, 188; concerning estimates for, note 1, p. 613, note 1, p. 836; provision for, 613, 836; additions to, 636, 837.
- Saunders, Admiral Charles, signs articles of capitulation at Quebec, 1, 4.
- Saville, Sir George, member of the British Commons, note 2, p. 767.
- Seal for Province of Quebec, description of proposed, 158.
- Security, Court of Appeals to determine when necessary, 852, 859.
- Secretary of State for the Colonies, office created in 1768 and abolished in 1782, note 1, p. 739.
- Seigneurs, powers of, 82; their numbers and circumstances, 971; their case with relation to question of house of assembly, 973, 975; advantages of granting military commissions to, 985.