

kind & sympathetic help. I often I often have wondered you with a "wondering tone." I shall be most anxious to visit to hear further. - Kindly I feel anxious to talk to you of your time. - Thank you also with a deep gratitude for all you say about my father. - I have you said ask to share in memories that I appreciate that he or can only trust me & please me very much. Such expressions of feeling ~~and~~ ^{give} the friends a very beautiful & personal touch that we treasure & value deeply, & to have it from you in particular is a special happiness.

he had suddenly, on the strength of that miserable & quite necessary £5-if even he had been ill, etc. I am going to try & find out from his sister, if I can, that exactly his part-may have been. Thank you, gratefully, for your advice in regard to giving him anything further. I quite feel you are right, for he has had a chance in a thousand to make a good start again, & to make good the help he received, & if he can't do well over 3 years there is something radically wrong with him. But I am most sincerely grateful to you for your
