SHERBROOKE, July 30th 1940.

To the Right Honorable Arthur Meighen, Senator,
Parliament Buildings,
Ottawa, Ont.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 22nd instant was gladly received for its encouragement. Many thanks for it. I refer this to the fact that you have certainly noticed that I am one of these Quebecers who can remember back to two hundreds years ago.

As I have told you before, I am ready to serve in any capacity that will help our country to be victorious when the proper time comes. In the meantime shoulder to shoulder with anyone in the British Empire I would like to do my share. I must however consider all I have written to you before.

Being qualified as a machine-gunner, may I suggest that any help in my district or anyone else in Canada or somewhere else, if need may be, be directed along that line.

Yours respectfully,

Antonio Drolet
