

(4) A certificate in writing of a decision or ruling under this section purporting to be signed by a person who certifies that he has authority to make such decision or ruling shall be evidence of the decision or ruling and of such authority.

General

616. No proceeding before any person appointed or designated under these regulations, and no decision made pursuant to these regulations shall, by means of an injunction, prohibition, mandamus, certiorari, habeas corpus, or other process issuing out of Court, be enjoined, restrained, stayed, removed or subjected to review or consideration on any ground whether arising out of alleged absence of jurisdiction, nullity, defect or irregularity of the proceedings, or any other cause whatsoever, nor shall any such proceeding or decision be questioned, reviewed, or reconsidered in any court.

617. No person shall be responsible at law for anything done by him in good faith in the performance of his duties under these regulations and no action shall be taken against any person in respect of the performance or non-performance of his duties under these regulations.

618.(1) If, while a man is liable to report for military training, any change occurs in his address or in his matrimonial status, he shall forthwith notify such change to the Divisional Registrar of the Division in which he resided immediately before such change occurred; and the Divisional Registrar to whom a notice of the change of address of any man is given shall transfer his copy of the man's registration card and other records of the man to the Divisional Registrar of the Division to which the man has removed.

(2) Every man who has been designated shall keep the Divisional Registrar advised at all times of the address where mail will reach him.

619. Every person to whom any order is issued or who is required to do or abstain from doing anything by or pursuant to these regulations shall obey such order precisely or do or abstain from doing such thing precisely as required.
