

Mr. Donovan's Commissioners were Daniel Ford and G. W. Parent, Esquires, and they were subjected to the same treatment as the Commissioners in Mrs. Ryan's case.

If such a state of things can exist, there is no security for the land owner in the City of Montreal, against rapacious aggression—all the more intolerable because there is no appeal from the homologated report of a majority of the Commissioners.