

1873

Oct. 27th—Temperature of H.M. room this morning at 9 o'clock 50°.

Dec. 8th—Notified Mr. Barber that two panes of glass were broken in the building and that a pouring jug for ink was required.

1874

Feb. 24th—Memorandum received from Mr. Barber, this day:

“The Public School Board has adopted the following amendment to No. 3 of the Regulations for the government of the city Public Schools, viz.: That all pupils now attending the city Public Schools shall be forthwith personally examined by the Head Master and Head Mistress respectively of each school; that any pupils found not to have been properly vaccinated be suspended until the Head Master or Head Mistress as the case may be, is satisfied that such pupil has been properly vaccinated and that no pupil be hereafter admitted to any city Public School without having first satisfactorily passed a like personal examination.

“Each Head Master will please enter on his school diary the foregoing amended Regulation and see that the same is entered on the Diary of the female department. The Head Mistress will please report the result of her examination to the Head Master, who will please forward the same with his own report to the same effect with as little delay as possible.”

April 20th—On account of the death of the P. S. Inspector, Rev. James Porter, the City Public Schools were closed this p.m. Funeral this p.m. at 3.00 o'clock.

May 18th—Mr. James Hughes, the P. S. Inspector, visited each department of this school this forenoon.

May 28th—Notified the Secretary, Mr. Barber, that the floor of the water closet in the Girls' yard is in need of repair.

June 29th—Mr. Barber notified the H. Master that the quarter salaries would be paid on Friday, July 3rd, at the school.

1875

Feb. 23rd—Notified the Inspector of P. Buildings (school) that the stove pipes in Miss Wills' room, and also in Miss Killoch's room were insecure.

March 22nd—The Committee on School Management direct that in future the Scripture be read during the reading hour on Friday by the First, Second and Third Divisions.

March 22nd—Striking pupils on the head with a cane or with the hand is an improper mode of punishment, and is not only deprecated but forbidden.

May 18th—This school was closed this p.m. on account of the funeral of the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.

June 29th—The half yearly public examination of the pupils of this school took place this day, beginning at 9.30 a.m. and closing at 4 p.m. The attendance of visitors in the afternoon was very large. The following pupils received Honour certificates:

FIFTH DIVISION.

Mollie Stewart, Mary Stocks, Adeline Blair, Wm. Lumsden, Thomas Barry, John Spence, Alfred Grumbleby, William Saunders, Fred Howard, Maggie Smart, Jane Blair, Caroline Hill, Bathia Lumsden, Victoria Loanc, Martha Toy, Jessie Allister, Katie Stewart, Florence Grinnel.

FOURTH DIVISION.

L. Webber, L. Wilson, L. Spence, A. Stewart, L. Hall, A. Brown, A. Doig, Walter Toy, Robert Ellis, William Allen, Charles Davis,