1. O Can - a - da, thou lord of no - ble name,
2. O Can - a - da, thrice blest on ev - 'ry side,
3. O sa - cred love of al - tar and of throne,

Thy brow is crowned with gold - en leaves of fame; Thine Thy sons shall spread thy glo - ry far and wide; Their Breathe in our hearts, till truth shall reign a - lone; Till arm so great and glo - ri - ous Both sword and cross doth hope and high en - dea - vour, En - riched from heav'n a - wrath and wrong shall pe - rish, And faith and peace a - bear, Thine an - nals all vic - to - ri - ous Thy gal - lant deeds de - bove, Shall still pro - tect for ev - er The Mo - ther - land they bide, And all the hopes we che - rish Shall prove our coun - try's clare. Thy faith di - vine, thy cou - rage bold, love. Their faith di - vine, their cou - rage bold, pride. Our fa - thers' song once more we sing,

Shall guard our homes, our sa - cred rights up - hold,
Shall guard her homes, her sa - cred rights up - hold,
Our bat - tle - cry of old "For Christ and King!"
