

2-3 EDWARD VII., A. 1903

1837. neglect of grantees or their descendants and Glenelg cannot depart from this rule. Page 411
- March 17, Downing Street. Unsigned to Kerr. The case of his father having undergone the most ample consideration. Glenelg must decline to revive its discussion. His regret at being compelled to return this unfavourable answer. 869
- March 18, London. Delisser and Crawford to Grey. Asks for an interview. 414
- Enclosed.* Memorandum of the grant to Governor Cox of the Island of Bonaventure with the descent to his heirs. 415
- March 20. Unsigned to Ellison. That his application to have his time extended to proceed to Canada shall be taken into consideration. 463
- March 21. Unsigned to Aylmer. One of the main objects of the measure submitted by Government to Parliament was to obtain funds for the payment of engagements due to these filling offices in His Majesty's service in Lower Canada. When that measure has passed he will resume consideration of His Lordship's letter. States that it will not be in the power of His Majesty's Government to pay interest. 61
- March 21. Maule to Glenelg. Encloses letter sent by Burrage, who is one of the many who have suffered by the recklessness of the Papineau party. 899
- March 25, London. Delisser and Crawford to Grey. Further respecting the grant of the Island of Bonaventure to Governor Cox with the leading dates. They challenge the legality of the transaction by which they were deprived of their rights which are entirely unconnected with the family of Lt. Col. Cox for whose neglect they are not responsible. 417
- March 27, New York. James Buchanan to Ellis. Has received and forwarded dispatches to Gosford and Head. 210
- March 27, London. Pitcairn and Amor to Grey. Forwards a letter from Robert Johnston whom they have long favourably known. 944
- March 27. Unsigned to Barrow. Sends letter from Sabine with report on the papers left by Douglas. Asks that he submits the documents to the Commissioners of the Admiralty that they may send their opinion to Glenelg, of the amount of remuneration that should be paid to the representatives of Douglas. 977
- March 28. Buxton to—Many respectable negroes are in Canada, but cannot obtain land by purchase from the Canada Company on the ground that their obtaining land would deter white emigrants from settling. Recommends that government make a grant of land to the negroes. 114
- Enclosed.* Reports respecting negroes in Canada. 115
- March 28. Unsigned to Taylor. Sends memorandum showing the grounds on which Judge Kerr was removed. 1017
- March 30, London. Aylmer to Glenelg. Believes the time has arrived for soliciting attention to the application of Mackinnon for reimbursement of his expenses in 1835. To support this application sends passage from a letter written by Lord, then Mr. Stanley, desiring that some person or persons should be sent to be examined on the part of Government before a committee of the House, when the communication was received. Mackinnon was on his way and was examined. The second time Mackinnon carried a petition from the Assembly and a dispatch from him (Aylmer) in relation to it. Recommends under these circumstances the payment of Mackinnon. 63
- March 30, Lambeth. Jackson to Stephen. Are school masters sent out to Canada by Government? If so, are there any vacancies? 864
- March 31. Unsigned to Buxton. Government cannot interfere with the Canada Company and Glenelg does not feel warranted in placing the negroes separate from other inhabitants, even if he had not been bound to the Canada Company not to dispose of the land except by sale. 120
- March 31, Lochgilphead. Dick to Colonial Secretary. Desires to know where he can get a copy of the will of his late brother, Robert Dick. 427
