THE BARN AND SOME OF THE STOCK ON A COMPETING DAIRY FARM.

The number of up-to-date, spacious barns and stables that are features of the farms entered in the Dairy Farms Competition conducted by Farm and Dairy last year was a point especially commented on by the judges. A good barn and stable is a prime essential where dairying or stock raising is practised. The competitors had recognized this fact. The barn illustrated is owned by Mr. J. A. Anderson of Stormont Co., Ont. He describes his barn and farm practice on Page 6.
