THE LITTLE LIGHT

(For the Sentinel)

Lo! before the Tabernacle
softly gleams a little light,
With its world of mystic meaning shedding radiance day and night.

Little Light so brightly burning,
why perform thy task so well?
In accents low comes back the answer,
Ah, this is where dear Jesus dwells!

Little Light how great the lesson,

Thou art teaching day by day,
Shining forth in silent splendor,

pointing out to all the way.

Come then, Christian, adore your Saviour in His Tabernacle home, With the angels sing His praises, 'till He calls thee to His throne.

Permelia T. Schweitzer.
