

AMILTON (Gavin) SCHOLA ITALICA PICTORA
ORIGINAL IMPRESSIONS, in very fine state, of the 40 beautiful engravings broad margins, in original boards, 14.75, Rome, 1773.

BEAUTIFUL PICTURES in SPLENDID STATE, by this celebrated Scottish Historian, who spent much time at Rome and died in that city, 1797.

Rome, in the EARLY PART of the LAST CENTURY, CENT OLD PLAN OF ROME, splendidly engraved on six uniform inches wide by 27 in height, thus forming a grand picture, about nine feet length by twenty-seven inches high, 10.75, early in the last century.

A RARE AND BEAUTIFUL PRODUCTION in the FIRST POSSIBLE STATE, for which no price can be named, and should be spared for a heavy and substantial frame. Its proper place being the vestibule of the Museo or the Hall or Reading Room of a Public Library, as the picture is, at once a history of the sources of a goodly portion of the history of our race in its connection with the GREEK and ROMAN, ANCIENT AND MEDIEVAL ARCHITECTURE.
