THE MOUNTAIN BOY MINING COMPANY, LIMITED.

The City of Halifax had under consideration last year the question of listing their bonds on the Montreal Stock Exchange. It is doubtful whether any great advantage would accrue to the city by this action. The municipal bond business is transacted largely in other quarters. The listing of the bonds on the London Exchange would perhaps be a better step for the city to take. They would be continually before the investing public and while subject to the slight fluctuation prevailing in the municipal bond market no harm could come of their being quoted with the rest.
