Edmonton is experiencing a period of marked activity along industrial lines. The Great Western Garment factory have found it necessary to order additional equipment practically doubling their capacity. The Edmonton Cigar Factory are arranging for additional space to permit of considerably increased output. The Edmonton Tent and Mattress Company find it necessary to provide additional space for the installation of a big addition to their equipment. Cushing Brothers have just completed a big new brick factory, and practically all industries report capacity business. The International Harvester Company have arranged for immediate erection of a large six storey brick warehouse; work is progressing rapidly on the big brick and concrete distributing warehouse of the Massey-Harris Company. P. Burns & Company have recently announced their intention to commence early construction on the big meat packing plant which they have had under consideration for some time past.
The coal strikes have not affected the mines in the Edmonton district except to create a prospect of considerable advance in prices. There have been no labor troubles in Edmonton mines.
