The unuber of losses from this cause were farless than last year, but they came laver in the season, striking barns when full, resulting in heavy losses. No forethought or care can prevent losses under this head. I find a great decrease in losses of a general kind since a good harvest was assured. This bears out that hard times is an important factor in the amount of insurance losses. This is they borne out by the fact that unknown and freending loss arke greatly decreased (fully up per cent.) The losses from lanterns, lamps, stove-pipes and chimeys have also decreased, but are still too large, and could still further bers. Another new hazard has appeared on the field. Nar12 -110 A Day. I recommended Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic I recommended Faster Koenig's Nerve Tonic to several of my purisitioners, for nervous pros-tration, one for alcoholism, seven for whom I am assured the Tonic was more than money or time could procure-a perfect cure in their cases. Hoping this will suffice to prove the ex-cellent effect of the remedy, I thank you for the

 TORONTO LIVE STOCK.
 Feb. 11.—We had this morning 14 loads of fresh stock, consisting of 130 certile, 150 sheep and lambs, 200 hops and 6 calves. About three or four loads were brought up for shipment to Maaireal, although the genial little French man, who with Mr. Halligan are the principal bygers for this market, complained that he had some difficulty in getting the right kind of stock, nothing but the best fat beeves belax wanted for Eastern markets.
 CATTLE—Trade was quiet and of a steady that set in the far cattle finding a good enquiry and inferior and rough stock neglicity in a fair prospect of clearing up the light receipts before the day closed. In several sales 4c was reached, but it was for extra choice stock, about 39 e for good fait butchers' cattle being the ruling price. Infirite and rough cows and oxen sold at 21 to 24 c.
