St. Patrick's Bazaar. - Branch 26 Ahead

That the St. Patrick's bazaar, Montreal, is a big success no one who was present in the Windsor hall on Saturday night and saw the big crowd there could have the slightest doubt. Every Irishman who considered himself anybody was there, and many who could not claim to be either Irish or of Irish descent were also present; and what was the main thing, so far as the promoters of the bazaar were concerred. was that the visitors left cash behind them in exchange for some of the many fancy and useful articles with which the several sialls were laden. Great interest was manifested in the trophy contest, which on Saturday night stood. Branch 6. C. M. B. A. 1, 745; Branch 1. M. B. A. 913; St. Patrick's Temperance society, 89; Shamrock A. A. The memoers of the above branch were highly clated on Saturday night when the figures in the trophy contest, now going on at the Windsor hall, was announced. The branch was over 800 otes ahead of at the other competitors in the contest. The dinner tendered by the ladies of the bazaar to the members of Branch 26 was a most successful affair. Anyone visiting the Windsor hall last evening would never have supposed it to be the closing night of the great St. Patrick's bazaar. From 2 o'clock in the atternoon until the inal closing down about twelve hours later, the place was thronged. The stalls and booths still eeemed to be doing a steady business, while the good-natured and well-behaved crowd had a thoroughly good time. One of the, if not the most popular booths of the bazaar was the charming flower stall presided over by Mrs. Jas. McShane and assisted by Mrs. James Cochrane, and the Misses Mand McShane. An Darragh, A. Loranger, Robidoux, M. Martin. Louise Brown, Mount, Dansereau (two) and E. Farrell. It is expected that this stall alone has realized the handsome sum of seed, and the ladies are to be congratulated on their efforts, Of course one can only guess at what the neighproceeds of the entire bazaar will be, but it is confidently expected they will be in the neighborhood of $10,00°. Those of the articles left over last night were auctioned off. The result of the voting for the trophy was as follows: Branch 26, C. M. B. A., Grand Council of Canada, 5,116; Branch No. 1, C. M. B. Brechin, Ont., June 18, 1894.

Thomas Coffey, Esq.—Dear Sir—Kindly permit me to inform the numerous readers of your excellent paper of a few good business chances in this town. Brechin is beautifully situated on the east shore of Lake Simcoe, eighty miles from Toronto, on the Midland division of the G. T. R., and the proposed extension of the C. P. K. from Toronto to Sudbury. It has a population of about three hundred, and is surrounded by excellent farming land in a good state of cultivation—including the famous Point Mara, the best land in Ontario. The Mineral wells from which the famous "Udor" water is procured are in the immediate vicinity of Brechin, and the climate is quite salubrious. Now there is a standing offer of a FREE SITE, convenient to the railway, for a good flour mill. The nearest mill at present is eight miles distant. There is also a good opening for a competent butcher, as the nearest at present is eight miles away. This is an excellent opportunity for a man who can not only attend to the local trade but also carry on a wholesale trade with Orillia, and buy cattle for the Toronto and foreign markets. There are plenty of cattle to be had, as there are ranches thousands of acres in extent a few miles only from town. Our druggist moved away a short time ago to be nearer his former home, leaving an excellent opening for a paying business in that line. As our veteran shoemaker, Mr. Barker, lost the most of the implements of his trade by the recent fire, he is seriously thinking of disposing of his business, and as he would have no rival, a good tradesman could make a good living. There are, too, a number of good, improved farms for sale in this section. Besides the inestimable boons of a fine, large church and a resident priest, Brechin affords a special advantage to Catholics with families, in its large and efficient Separate school, endowed by its founder, the late Mr. Foley, to such an extent that no taxes are necessary unless for special improvements. Hoping that some of your Catholic readers will avail themselves of these advantages, and thanking you for the use of your valuable space, I remain, Yours gratefully, K. J. MCRAE, P. P.

MR. TERRANCE WATERS, LOGAN.

As the charlot wheels of time roll along on their precipitous track, that grim exterminator, Death, invades our peaceful domains and stlentily ushers forth a reconciled victim to receive meritorious reward from the Ominipotent Just. On this occasion the chosen one is Mr. Terrance Waters, a highly-esteemed member of our community, the was born in County Sligy, Ireland, in the year 1831, and migrated to this country forty-seven years ago. The funeral of the late James Clair, who has been night and day operator at the G. F. R. station for the past four years, took place on Thursday, 3ist May, and was largely at tended by friends and fellow-employes, who wished to show their great respect for one who was a general favorite with all. The order of Railway Telegraphers, of which deceased was a member, was well represented, and they marched in procession ahead of the hearse. The foral offerings were very appropriate. London bivision, No. 164, O. R. T. sent a wreath with the words "Our Brother;" G.T.R. employes, Cayuga station, a wreath with the letters "G.T.R." and his fellow-operators along the Loop Line from St. Thomas east sent a pillow with "operators, Loop Line." The path-bearers were all telegraphers, viz. J. McMullen, G. L. Goodrow, John Chapman, Harry Hoshal, W. McIntyre and Levi Coiling. He was insured for $1,000 in the Temperance and General Life Assurance Co. and $5.00 in the Grand Trunk Provident JAMES CLAIR, CAYUGA.

Miss Agnes Fitzgibbons, London.

It is our painful task to this week record the death of Miss Agnes, youngest daughter of Mr. James Fitzgibbons, merchant, Ridout street, London, which sad event occurred at her parents' residence, on Monday, June 11. This worthy young lady had been ailing for over five months, bearing her illness with exemplary patience and sublime resignation to the holy will of our Lord; and her death, though not unexpected, leaves a painful void in a loving family circle and has cast a gloom over hosts of sincere friends.

On the 13th instant Requiem High Mass was celebrated for the repose of the departed soul by Rev. M. J. Tiernan, after which the funeral cortege proceeded to St. Peter's cemetery, where the interment took place, the very large number of vehicles which folloped the bier being indicative of the esteem in which the bereaved family is held. The pall-bearers were Messrs, Pethick, Wright, Dally, Ranahan, Gould and Cook.

The surviving members of the family have the sympathy of the entire community. R. I. P.

one of the gentlest and fairest of maidens. Miss Helene Simmons, who had been a pupil of the Ursuline Academy, Chatham, Ont., for many years and a graduate of the class of 1890, in English, French and music.

This dear child of Mary rendered her pure soul into the hands of her Creator, at St. Agnes' Academy, Texarkana, Texas, on the feast of St. Anthony of Padua, for whom she always had a special devotion. Miss Simmons was directress of music and the classics in the academy, where her talents attracted a large number of pupils.

Her future prospects were bright and full of radiant promise, but as soon as she real ized that the Master called her hence, she fervently made the sacrifice of her fair young life, and died with a prayer of faith and hope upon her lips.

We extend our deepest sympathy to her many friends who mourn her early call from their midst.

Think of her gain, her willing sacrifice

grimage in this world should end, and she cheerfully yielded up her life to her Maker, and passed to the beautiful beyond to receive the eternal crown she so richly earned. Deceased and her late husband were among the early settlers of Melancthon. They moved from Kleinburg about torty years ago to one of the beet farms in the county of Dufferin. They were the only Catholics in the neighborhood, and during their long residence here enjoyed the respect and esteem of all. Among the many virtues of deceased, her large charity and hospitality will never be forgotten. The reedy and suffering had always a kind and her last loaf with those in want. Being an exemplary Catholic she brought up her family in the fear and love of God, early instructing them in the principles of our holy religion, and by word and example, training them to follow in her footsteps. She leaves behind her a grown up family of six sons and two daughters, John. Dave and Sadie, who live at Phelpston; Henry of New York State, and Michael. Anthony, Dan and Mary, who live on the homestead.

The faneral took place on Tuesday morning to St. Patrick's church, Melancthon, where solenn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Reve Father McPhillips of Orangeville, who also preached an impressive funeral sermon. The remains were then conveyed to St. Patrick's church, Melancthon, where following of both Catholics and Protacutaris showed the high esteem in which deceased was sheld. The sympathy of all is extended to those left to mourn the loss of such a good moner, but memory will all meet again in that heavenly home when there will be no more parting.

CONVERTS TO THE CHURCH.

welve Members of New York's " Four Hundred "Received into the Church by Jesuit Fathers.

New York society is agog over the conversion to the Catholic faith of a number of the adult members of the "Four Hundred." The ceremony occurred in the Convent of the Sacred Heart last Thursday, but the facts were not made public in society and clubdom until last Saturday night. Last Sunday it was the talk of the town. town

The ceremony was performed in the handsome little chapel in the convent on West Seventeenth street, which was filled with the friends and relatives of those who were to be confirmed. About forty in all received the sacrament, which is only given at the convent once a year. There were twelve vent once a year. There were twelve little girls and six boys, the rest being adults and most of them converts.

adults and most of them converts.

It is considered a great privilege to be allowed to be confirmed in the convent, and it is only granted in special cases. Among those who enjoyed the privilege were: Mr. and Mrs. Chauncy, W. Floyd-Jones, Mrs. Benvenidas. Mrs. Anna S. Arnold, Mrs. Brennen, Mrs. Furlong, Mrs. W. M. Holley, Miss Frances Holley, Miss Huberman, Miss Roche and Mrs. Marie, all converts. Marie, all converts.

Mr. Floyd Jones was the only gentle-man who received the sacrament pre-sent and he enjoys the distinction of being the first man confirmed in the convent. He owed this to the fact of his wife being with him and that he made his first Communion there.

Nearly all the adult converts who received confirmation were received into the Church by the Jesuit Fathers of St. Francis Xavier's.

The Ontario Life.

We refer our readers to the report of the Ontario Life Assurance Company which appears in this issue. A care ful perusal of the document, giving detailed statement of the work done by this excellent institution during the past twelve months, proves that it is one of the most reliable and most carefully managed companies in the Dominion. To those who wish to take out an in-surance policy on their lives we would say that we feel safe in recommending them to try the Ontario Life. There is no companies in the Dominion which offers better advantages, and its stability is beyond question.

Before Mr. Hall began taking the Pink Pills he was so thm and light that one of his brothers could carry him upstairs without the least difficulty, but he has since gained fifty pounds in weight. He has not taken any other medicine since he began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and although a fit of a very mild nature occasionally comes on him now, he is so nearly cured that his father took great pleasure in giving the information here recorded. "It is over a month since I had a spell," said William, as the reporter was leaving, "and even when I do have one now it is not nearly so hard as before I began to take the Pink Pills. The neighbors looked surprised to see me drive over to Hamilton as I frequently do, for they all thought I would die long ago. I am pleased at the wonderful progress I have made, and am very glad my experience is to be published, as it may be of value to some one else."

Every statement in this article may be verified by a visit to the home of Captain Hall, excouncillor of East Flamboro, who has resided on the Plains road for the past eighteen years, and whose word is as good as his bond among those who know him. The reporter also had a conversation with several of Captain Hall's neighbors, and the story of William Hall's neighbors, and the story of William Hall's recovery was verified to his fall satisfaction.

Such well verified cases as the above prove the wonderful efficacy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the treatment of all diseases of the nervous system, and stamp the remedy as unique in the annals of medicine. St. Vitus' dance, locomotor, ataxia, partial paralysis, rheumatism, sciatica, chronic erystpelas, nervous headache, the effects of la grippe, and all diseases depending upon a depraved condition of the blood, speedily yield to a treatment with a great medicine. By restoring the blood to a healthy condition, and rebuilding the nerves they speedily drive out disease and leave the patient in the enjoyment of vigorous health. They are also

The public are cautioned against imitations and substitutes said to be "just as good." These are only offered by some unscrupulous dealers because there is a larger profit for them in the imitation. There is no other remedy can successfully take the place of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and those who are in need of a medicine should insist upon getting the genuine, which are always put up in boxes bearing the words "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." If you cannot obtain them from your dealer they will be sent post-paid on receipt of 50 cents a box, or $2.50 for six boxes, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.
